The Republican City Caucuses Held.

First-Class, Indifferent and Very Poor Nominations.

A Presumed Dynamite Bomb Lighted at the City Hall.

Attempted Murder in San Gabriel Canon—Officer Weatherman Very Seriously Injured—Stanton Post, G.A.R., Elects Officers—Minor Mention.

The Republican caucuses were held last evening according to call, with results as follows:

FIRST WARD.

The First Ward voters met at the Southern Hotel, and nominated F. G. Randle and Newell Matthews for Council. The delegates are as follows: John White, F. R. Willis, Frank Cook, W. W. Stockwell, C. F. Kimball, Dave Carr, F. W. Tyler, C. B. Woodhead, J. C. Cox, Harry Belcher, C. N. Earl, J. H. Ragland, A. Phillips, M. S. Baker, I. C. Marks, Andy Duggan.

SECOND WARD.

The Second Warders met in the Temple block and nominated J. M. Skinner for Council. Following are the delegates:

H. H. Appel, E. J. Niles, M. S. Abcrill, James Booth, J. M. Skinner, S. Altamirano, Dr. Baldy, Bill Clayton, P. Keefer, A. J. Furrey, R. Miller, J. B. de las Casas, B. A. Prunor, George P. McLain, Thomas S. Hull, T. F. Phillips and Bob Eckert.

THIRD WARD.

The citizens of the Third Ward, to the number of fifty-three, met in Justice Austin's courtroom last evening to caucus for the city convention. Dr. W. G. Cochran was chosen chairman. Rudolph Ranney, J. H. Book and W. H. Seamans were appointed a committee to nominate delegates for the convention. W. H. Bonsall and E. C. Burlingame were nominated for councilmen from the Third Ward. The committee reported the following delegates, who were declared elected: William Ferguson, W. G. Cochran, H. H. Boyce, W. E. Morford, J. Koster, E. W. Jones, R. D. Wade, George M. Smith, Robert Steere, Frank P. Kelly, George Gebhart, G. C. Engle, D. G. Stephens, A. L. Bath, Rudolph Ranney, J. H. Book and W. H. Seamans. Mr. Gebhart declined, and C. H. McNelly was chosen in his place.

The noticeable thing about the caucus was that—with a few accidental first-class men—the majority of the meeting were of the same gang that colonized the Third-Ward caucus last year before the county convention—a proceeding which so aroused the ward, city and county that the conspirators were overwhelmingly defeated from end to end. Not learning wisdom by experience, however, they are at their old tricks again. Mr. Bonsall, one of the nominees for Council, is an educated, enterprising and excellent man. Burlingame, the other, is the able person who colonized the ward caucus last year, bringing in a large gang of his ditch-diggers for that purpose. He owns a large amount of land out on the hills, and wants streets graded, water put in, etc. He frankly states that if he can get into Council and get what he wants, it will increase the value of his property 50 per cent. He is uneducated, except in gang practices.

FOURTH WARD.

The Fourth Ward caucus met in the hall of the engine-house, but adjourned to Justice Taney's court. H. D. Barrows was elected chairman and E. E. Powers secretary. Considerable disturbance was caused by Deputy Sheriff Carlos L. Cruz, who was full, and was suppressed with much difficulty. The following delegates to the city convention were nominated by acclamation:

Mr. Lovell, C. H. Clarke, J. W. Davis, T. H. Ward, Charles Bell, E. E. Powers, R. B. Russell, Mr. Barrows, W. H. Gilbert, R. O. Pryke, N. H. Morrison, D. F. Donegan, W. H. McDonald.

John McIlmoil was nominated for the long term in Council, and J. W. Browning for the short term.

FIFTH WARD.

The Republicans of the Fifth Ward met at the Morris Vineyard hose house last night to select delegates to the convention and nominate candidates for Councilmen. J. Frankenfield was elected chairman and Bradner W. Lee secretary. The following were selected as delegates to the convention: J. Frankenfield, George Sinsabaugh, J. C. Daly, M. G. Willard, Col. W. S. Moore, Judge L. Shaw, W. P. McIntosh, Edward Leake, F. C. Woodbury, S. W. Hiller, W. H. Rhodes, Bradner W. Lee, J. W. Hinton, George Henck and M. A. Deckman.

After considerable talk Dr. H. Sinsabaugh and Capt. J. Frankenfield were prevailed upon to accept the nominations for Councilmen, which were tendered by the unanimous vote of the meeting.

SENSIBLE SENTIMENTS.

"Yes," said Councilman J. Frankenfield, chairman of the Republican City Central Committee, to a TIMES representative yesterday, "we have the hardest kind of a fight to make at the coming election. We are absolutely sure of defeat unless we put up strictly first-class men. I am sorry to see a good many scrubs in the field. This is a most important era in the city's growth. When the present Council went into office, the city was bankrupt. Now there is $700,000 in the treasury. That is what these fellows are after. We must nominate only our best men, and we will elect them. Otherwise we are beaten."

DISMISSED.

Just Because the Complaint was Wrongly Drawn.

A rather curious case was heard yesterday before Judge Cheney and a jury. Two of the female inhabitants of Rattlesnake Island, near San Pedro, for some reason became bitter enemies. One, the accused, Mrs. H. Webber, is of Mexican birth, the other, her accuser, Mrs. McGowen, is of Irish parentage. Both had scraped out an existence, such as it was, on the island, and cared for the entertainment of seafaring visitors. They differed in religious belief, and for this reason the defendant, Mrs. Webber, intended that her now accuser, Mrs. McGowen, should die, and with her all trace of spiritualism would be driven from the island. Mrs. Webber is so accused by her foe, though there appears to be something still lurking behind the case which has not and will not be fully brought forth in the course of the trial. The witnesses and audience were seafaring characters. District Attorney Dupuy prosecuted and Henry T. Gage took charge of the interests of the defendant. Mary Agnes McGowen, the complaining witness, testified that Mrs. Webber came to her house at Rattlesnake Island, near San Pedro, early on the morning of the 27th of June last, and asked for the key of her house. "I was about to leave the house and told Mrs. Webber I would give her the key as soon as I got dressed. It was then about 10 o'clock in the morning. She took a pan of water and throwing it over her shoulder drenched me. I asked her what she meant to do, and she answered she was a Catholic and I was a Spiritualist, and I was no good and must die. She then attacked me with a knife and cut me in four different places in the head, inflicting four severe and deep wounds. I fainted then, and when I came to, she was dragging me by the hair to the door, saying, "You no dead yet;" and she hit my head on the top of the step and gonged my ear. She again threatened to kill me.

Mr. Gage made a motion at the conclusion of Mrs. McGowen's testimony to have the charge dismissed on the ground that the defendant charged in the information is Jane Doe. After a long argument on each side the Court took the matter under advisement.

Dr. H. B. Lathrop, called on behalf of the prosecution, testified that he lived at San Pedro, and had sworn to the complaint against Mrs. Webber. On the morning of June 27th he found several cuts on Mrs. McGowen's scalp, one on her forehead and one on her arm and one behind the ear. The Doctor then described the nature of the wounds and the course he had adopted in treating her. He afterward brought Mrs. McGowen to San Pedro, and swore out the complaint.

The court then adjourned to 1:30 p.m.

Mr. Gage's motion was finally allowed, and the case dismissed.

STANTON POST.

Meeting Last Night—Nomination of Officers—Other Business.

WILLIE WITTS.

coming away from the barn shortly before he saw the flames. The defense in this case now seem to be resting on their oars. The present cloud under which the principal witnesses in the police department are, and the absence of two of the most important witnesses, may well make them feel happy for the time being.

The above is my report of work done under the direction of THE TIMES, and is, I believe, true in every particular. In a week I am satisfied I will have located these two witnesses. Respectfully, ——— ———, Detective.

Later Developments.

Last night this same detective succeeded in getting Witts to visit Hattie Woolsteen at the County Jail. Witts was positive that Hattie would prove conclusively to everyone that he had nothing to do with the burning of the barn and Harlan's corpse. Witts was accompanied by the quick-witted detective, and the meeting was closely watched. Hattie was greatly surprised when Jailer Russel announced that "Mr. Witts" was down stairs and wished to see her. The officers who were present at the meeting say Hattie's face turned very pale. Her father happened to be present at the time, and the conversation between her and Witts was very guarded, although Witts was very drunk, and Hattie seemed to be afraid that he would give the whole thing away. He told her he was being hounded to death by reporters and detectives, and seemed to be very anxious to convince her that he had not talked too much. He spoke of Minnie as his sweetheart, and Hattie acknowledged that he was Minnie's lover. He seemed to be very anxious to make her believe that he had attempted to see her a number of times, but that he had been refused admittance to the jail; while the facts are that he never attempted to see her. He also said he had not seen Minnie, and did not even know where she lives at the present time. When he announced that he was ready to go, old man Woolsteen said he guessed he would go, too, and they left the jail together. On their way downstairs to the front door Witts said to the detective, who was present in the room with them: "There were too many people present for me to talk to Hattie." He and Woolsteen left the jail together and seemed to be on the best of terms, although they acted in Hattie's presence as if they had never met before.

WITTS' SAY.

Witts was seen by a TIMES reporter last night, and said he hoped he would be arrested at once, as he claims to have five or six witnesses who can swear that he was not with Minnie on the evening of October 6th. He is positive that he can clear himself in ten minutes. He stated that he had heard that "Billie" Merritt, who had charge of the Government teams, on the night of the 6th of October, had a team out that night until a late hour, but he does not know where he went to. He never saw Merritt, he says, but he is of the opinion that that gentleman is a "tall, slim blondie," and answers the description of the man who was with Hattie when she drove up to Mrs. Ferguson's house on the afternoon of the shooting and tried to borrow a pistol. He if very positive about his own innocence, however, and says he hopes he will be arrested at once, so that he may stop all the talk about his being mixed up in the affair. As already noted, THE TIMES put the District Attorney in possession of all these facts at once, and it is probable that some arrests will be made today.

A DISAPPEARANCE.

A moment after Witts and Hattie's father left the jail the detective and a TIMES man hurried after them, but they had disappeared. Witts was very drunk and inclined to be talkative, but after Father Woolsteen got hold of him he could not be found again last night, and consequently had no chance to indulge his propensity to talk about the case.

ANOTHER STORY.

Detective Lees of San Francisco thinks the two Woolsteen girls figured in the larceny of a watch there a year ago. Little stock is taken in the story.

Y. M. C. A. Dinner.

The Ladies Auxiliary gave a most pleasant entertainment yesterday afternoon to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association who were away from home. All forenoon the busy hands of the fair ones were preparing the sumptuous repast for the young men's Thanksgiving dinner at the First Presbyterian Church parlors. When at 3 o'clock the young men arrived the tables were loaded to overflowing with roast turkey, cranberry sauce, ham, celery, green corn, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, pies, cakes, fruits, nuts and scores of other viands. Flowers of every variety filled the air with perfume. To each young man was given a button-hole rose bouquet.

After thanks had been given those present sang a Thanksgiving song writtten for the occasion by Miss Belle Overman. When the bounteous repast had been fully discussed, each member present gave a short speech, telling his name, where he was from, what he had done and what were his anticipations. Of the sixty-three members present twenty-seven States and countries were represented. Canada had the largest representation with nine present and Illinois second with eight sons. After the boys had told a great variety of experiences, there was an original poem read by Mrs. J. D. Burch, the president of the Ladies Auxiliary, whose indefatigable zeal and kindness had made this such a pleasant occasion.

The following was written to be sung at the dinner:

ODE TO LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles, 'tis of thee,
Fair city near the sea,
Of thee we sing.
Land of the "'49-er,"
Than which there is no finer,
From moneyed man to miner,
Her praises ring.

Los Angeles is her name,
And world-wide is her fame,
And well-deserved.
Long may her name be bright,
And known for doing right,
With naught to blur or blight,
Thro' time preserved.

On this Thanksgiving day
We'll cast dull care away,
And think of home.
Father and mother's there,
Perhaps a vacant chair,
Left by the son and heir,
Afar to roam.

Perhaps the Father's love
Has called that son above,
With Him to dwell.
He, in the mansions fair
Our God hath builded there,
Where cometh naught of care,
Would say, "All's well."

Bid sorrow in our hearts
No bitter, cruel darts
Or poison leave;
But from our hearts we'll raise,
As grateful incense, praise
To God thro' all our days,
Nor will to grieve.

Thanksgiving to the Lord,
Thanks living thro' His word,
Our lives attend.
Long may the Y. M. C. A.,
Hold rightful, potent sway
Until the judgment-day
It's work shall end.

We thank those women true,
Who spread for me and you
This bounteous board.
Long may their lives be dear,
To labor year by year,
At last the plaudit hear,
From our common Lord.

CHARLES E. GALE.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 24, 1887.

Home-Protection League.

Rev. W. R. Goodwin, the duly-appointed organizer for the Home-Protection League, called at the TIMES office last evening to correct a misapprehension. Some remarks concerning the league in this paper were intended to apply only to the branch here. Mr. Goodwin has just organized eight branches in Tulare county, and has organized branches at Compton, Pomona, South Pasadena, Pasadena, etc. He expects soon to have a branch league in every town in Southern California. Says Mr. Goodwin: "The Home-Protection League is not a mere personal move, nor is it composed of seceders from the Good Templars, nor is it but a handful. Everywhere I go the Good Templars welcome me and offer me their halls, and the most active members of the league in many places are Good Templars. The league is in full sympathy with the Prohibition party—local, State and national—and is arrayed against the saloon and its brood of evils, and is not making war upon the churches or temperance organizations, or the friends of temperance, anywhere or in any way."

Thanksgiving at the Jail.

Sheriff Kays and Jailer Russell gave the prisoners at the County Jail a big feed yesterday afternoon. A first-class Thanksgiving dinner was spread, and before sitting down to the table the boys let off three rousing cheers for Kays and Russell. After dinner was over they were treated to cigars all around, and they spent the evening dancing and having a jolly good time.

Austrian Ball.

The Los Angeles Austrian Verein gave a Thanksgiving ball last evening at Mott's Hall, which was very largely attended. O. Silberberg, Dr. C. de Szigethy, A. C. Golsh, John J. Schallert, John Heck, Joseph de Millardo, E. M. Adler and Jac Hischmann received the guests. Eugene Brunner acted as floor manager, with J. W. Matuszkiewiz and A. Berlinger as aids. The arrangement committee was composed of Joseph Bickel, F. J. Froewiss, Joseph Gritzbach, J. Leidwein, C. de Millardo, E. Brunner and J. W. Matuszkiewiz.

A Masterpiece.

A beautiful and unique specimen of the silversmiths' art is on exhibition in the show-window of the Diamond House, on Main street. It is a large, solid-silver punch bowl, inlaid with gold and specimens of quartz. The ladle is of silver, and is a very handsome piece of work, with a branch of gold tuñas, studded with turquoise, in the handle. There are also two stands for glasses, of silver, the bottoms of which are laid with American and Mexican dollars. The punch bowl is surmounted by a solid gold figure of a miner, with pick over his shoulder, about six inches in height. This handsome service was made to order, is of solid gold and silver, and cost, complete, $6000. The specimens of gold and silver quartz on it are among the finest specimens ever seen anywhere.

FROM 10 TO 83 ACRES IN COLEGROVE
Will be sold at reasonable rates and on very easy terms.
Colegrove lies in the Cahuenga Valley, just five miles northwest of the Plaza in Los Angeles, and is therefore two miles from the city limits. It is about eleven or twelve miles from the ocean, which is in plain view. It is well elevated, commanding a bird's-eye view of the Pico street and Washington street country. The Los Angeles County Railroad (better known as the "Foothill line") crosses Colegrove, upon which will be located the principal depot of the section. The West End Dummy Railroad is near by. Two large hotels are now under construction, and several others will be built in the neighborhood. The upper portion of the Cahuenga Valley has long been celebrated for the production of early (winter) vegetables, frost being unknown. All varieties of fruits and vegetables are grown without irrigation. The fertility of the soil is remarkable, and the climate unequaled. Ocean and mountain views, and all that. Purest water at from six to twenty feet. Several springs on the 83 acres.
Will be sold at one-half to one-sixth of prices asked for adjoining property

LOCAL NEWS.

The Republican City Caucuses Held.

First-Class, Indifferent and Very Poor Nominations.

A Presumed Dynamite Bomb Lighted at the City Hall.

Attempted Murder in San Gabriel Canon—Officer Weatherman Very Seriously Injured—Stanton Post, G.A.R., Elects Officers—Minor Mention.

The Republican caucuses were held last evening according to call, with results as follows:

FIRST WARD.

The First Ward voters met at the Southern Hotel, and nominated F. G. Randle and Newell Matthews for Council. The delegates are as follows: John White, F. R. Willis, Frank Cook, W. W. Stockwell, C. F. Kimball, Dave Carr, F. W. Tyler, C. B. Woodhead, J. C. Cox, Harry Belcher, C. N. Earl, J. H. Ragland, A. Phillips, M. S. Baker, I. C. Marks, Andy Duggan.

SECOND WARD.

The Second Warders met in the Temple block and nominated J. M. Skinner for Council. Following are the delegates:

H. H. Appel, E. J. Niles, M. S. Abcrill, James Booth, J. M. Skinner, S. Altamirano, Dr. Baldy, Bill Clayton, P. Keefer, A. J. Furrey, R. Miller, J. B. de las Casas, B. A. Prunor, George P. McLain, Thomas S. Hull, T. F. Phillips and Bob Eckert.

THIRD WARD.

The citizens of the Third Ward, to the number of fifty-three, met in Justice Austin's courtroom last evening to caucus for the city convention. Dr. W. G. Cochran was chosen chairman. Rudolph Ranney, J. H. Book and W. H. Seamans were appointed a committee to nominate delegates for the convention. W. H. Bonsall and E. C. Burlingame were nominated for councilmen from the Third Ward. The committee reported the following delegates, who were declared elected: William Ferguson, W. G. Cochran, H. H. Boyce, W. E. Morford, J. Koster, E. W. Jones, R. D. Wade, George M. Smith, Robert Steere, Frank P. Kelly, George Gebhart, G. C. Engle, D. G. Stephens, A. L. Bath, Rudolph Ranney, J. H. Book and W. H. Seamans. Mr. Gebhart declined, and C. H. McNelly was chosen in his place.

The noticeable thing about the caucus was that—with a few accidental first-class men—the majority of the meeting were of the same gang that colonized the Third-Ward caucus last year before the county convention—a proceeding which so aroused the ward, city and county that the conspirators were overwhelmingly defeated from end to end. Not learning wisdom by experience, however, they are at their old tricks again. Mr. Bonsall, one of the nominees for Council, is an educated, enterprising and excellent man. Burlingame, the other, is the able person who colonized the ward caucus last year, bringing in a large gang of his ditch-diggers for that purpose. He owns a large amount of land out on the hills, and wants streets graded, water put in, etc. He frankly states that if he can get into Council and get what he wants, it will increase the value of his property 50 per cent. He is uneducated, except in gang practices.

FOURTH WARD.

The Fourth Ward caucus met in the hall of the engine-house, but adjourned to Justice Taney's court. H. D. Barrows was elected chairman and E. E. Powers secretary. Considerable disturbance was caused by Deputy Sheriff Carlos L. Cruz, who was full, and was suppressed with much difficulty. The following delegates to the city convention were nominated by acclamation: Mr. Lovell, C. H. Clarke, J. W. Davis, T. H. Ward, Charles Bell, E. E. Powers, R. B. Russell, Mr. Barrows, W. H. Gilbert, R. O. Pryke, N. H. Morrison, D. F. Donegan, W. H. McDonald.

John McImoil was nominated for the long term in Council, and J. W. Browning for the short term.

FIFTH WARD.

The Republicans of the Fifth Ward met at the Morris Vineyard hose house last night to select delegates to the convention and nominate candidates for Councilmen. J. Frankenfield was elected chairman and Bradner W. Lee secretary. The following were selected as delegates to the convention: J. Frankenfield, George Sinsabaugh, J. C. Daly, M. G. Willard, Col. W. S. Moore, Judge L. Shaw, W. P. McIntosh, Edward Leake, F. C. Woodbury, S. W. Hiller, W. H. Rhodes, Bradner W. Lee, J. W. Hinton, George Henck and M. A. Deckman.

After considerable talk Dr. H. Sinsabaugh and Capt. J. Frankenfield were prevailed upon to accept the nominations for Councilmen, which were tendered by the unanimous vote of the meeting.

SENSIBLE SENTIMENTS.

"Yes," said Councilman J. Frankenfield, chairman of the Republican City Central Committee, to a TIMES representative yesterday, "we have the hardest kind of a fight to make at the coming election. We are absolutely sure of defeat unless we put up strictly first-class men. I am sorry to see a good many scrubs in the field. This is a most important era in the city's growth. When the present Council went into office, the city was bankrupt. Now there is $700,000 in the treasury. That is what these fellows are after. We must nominate only our best men, and we will elect them. Otherwise we are beaten."

DISMISSED.

Just Because the Complaint was Wrongly Drawn.

A rather curious case was heard yesterday before Judge Cheney and a jury. Two of the female inhabitants of Rattlesnake Island, near San Pedro, for some reason became bitter enemies. One, the accused, Mrs. H. Webber, is of Mexican birth, the other, her accuser, Mrs. McGowen, is of Irish parentage. Both had scraped out an existence, such as it was, on the island, and cared for the entertainment of seafaring visitors. They differed in religious belief, and for this reason the defendant, Mrs. Webber, intended that her now accuser, Mrs. McGowen, should die, and with her all trace of spiritualism would be driven from the island. Mrs. Webber is so accused by her foe, though there appears to be something still lurking behind the case which has not and will not be fully brought forth in the course of the trial. The witnesses and audience were seafaring characters. District Attorney Dupuy prosecuted and Henry T. Gage took charge of the interests of the defendant. Mary Agnes McGowen, the complaining witness, testified that Mrs. Webber came to her house at Rattlesnake Island, near San Pedro, early on the morning of the 27th of June last, and asked for the key of her house. "I was about to leave the house and told Mrs. Webber I would give her the key as soon as I got dressed. It was then about 10 o'clock in the morning. She took a pan of water and throwing it over her shoulder drenched me. I asked her what she meant to do, and she answered she was a Catholic and I was a Spiritualist, and I was no good and must die. She then attacked me with a knife and cut me in four different places in the head, inflicting four severe and deep wounds. I fainted then, and when I came to, she was dragging me by the hair to the door, saying, "You no dead yet;" and she hit my head on the top of the step and gouged my ear. She again threatened to kill me.

Mr. Gage made a motion at the conclusion of Mrs. McGowen's testimony to have the charge dismissed on the ground that the defendant charged in the information is Jane Doe. After a long argument on each side the Court took the matter under advisement.

Dr. H. B. Lathrop, called on behalf of the prosecution, testified that he lived at San Pedro, and had sworn to the complaint against Mrs. Webber. On the morning of June 27th he found several cuts on Mrs. McGowen's scalp, one on her forehead and one on her arm and one behind the ear. The Doctor then described the nature of the wounds and the course he had adopted in treating her. He afterward brought Mrs. McGowen to San Pedro, and swore out the complaint.

The court then adjourned to 1:30 p.m.

Mr. Gage's motion was finally allowed, and the case dismissed.

STANTON POST.

Meeting Last Night—Nomination of Officers—Other Business.

Stanton Post No. 55, G.A.R., met at its hall last night, Post Commander Thornton in the chair. Considerable business was transacted.

Comrade Bouton reported a donation to the post of $47, being a surplus left over from one of the St. Louis funds.

Comrade Simpkins, of 34 Buena Vista street, was reported very sick.

Comrade Whitson made a partial report from the Committee on Sham Battle, indicating progress. Interesting suggestions were made in this connection.

The nomination of officers for the ensuing term was then proceeded with. The following were placed in nomination: Post Commander, Comrade F. P. Johnson; S. V. C., M. R. Vernon; J. V. C., L. R. Whitson; Q. M., W. P. Wade; Officer of the Day, J. L. Skinner; Surgeon, E. T. M. Hurlbut; Chaplain, H. Z. Osborne; Officer of the Guard, C. C. Case; Council of Administration, Comrades J. C. ANTI-SALOON.

MARSHALING THE TEMPERANCE FORCES FOR BATTLE.

A Full Municipal Ticket Put in the Field—The Ladies Will Work, Too—Two Important Meetings Yesterday.

The movement against the saloons is growing in weight and impetus. The Anti-Saloon party has now put a full ticket in the field, and is preparing to back it up by hard work, as the following reports of yesterday's proceedings will show.

WOMEN'S MASS-MEETING.

The W.C.T.U. Takes Hold of the Matter Earnestly.

According to announcement, the six branches of the W.C.T.U. in this city, together with such other ladies as were interested in the matter, met in mass-meeting at Trinity M.E. Church South at 2 p.m. yesterday, to take action on the side of local option in the impending municipal campaign.

The president of the Southern California W.C.T.U., by request, took charge of the meeting. It was opened with prayer in the good old-fashioned way set by our forefathers. The president then congratulated the meeting that the times were auspicious for concerted action toward the removal of a great evil in our midst. The decision rendered in the Pasadena test case was another cause for congratulation. It was now a well-established fact that a majority of voters in a city election could have local option did they so desire. The object of the meeting was then stated. What were the women willing to do for the coming election? Various ladies in charge of local branches of the W.C.T.U. were called upon for an expression of opinion. To sum up the sentiments enthusiastically expressed by various speakers in a few words would amount to the following: That the women were ready and anxious to do everything in their power to forward the anti-saloon movement. It was unanimously voted that a free lunch be served by the ladies as near each polling place as they were allowed to approach. One young lady arose, and said in timid, blushing girl fashion that "the young ladies would like to do something to help along in this good work. Couldn't they make buttonhole bouquets?" A lively demonstration followed and the offer was quickly accepted. Mrs. St. John being present and having been saluted, was called upon for an address. In return she said that words seemed out of place where such vigorous measures were being taken for work.

The superintendent of the Band of Hope arose and asked if there was anything the children could do to help. Yes, yes, the little ones could help, too, the women decided. Organization of committees now went forward rapidly, until the work was well blocked out. Another mass-meeting was appointed for Monday, 2 p.m., at Trinity M.E. Church South, to complete arrangements for such anti-saloon work as woman can do.

ANTI-SALOON.

A Rousing Meeting Last Night—Nominations Made.

The Anti-Saloon Convention met last evening at Good Templars Hall and nominated the following ticket:

For Councilmen—First Ward, C. B. Woodhead and E. M. Hamilton; Second Ward, James Booth; Third Ward, William Rommell and C. H. Bradley; Fourth Ward, William Wilson and Joseph Woodworth; Fifth Ward, A. C. Shafer and J. C. Salisbury.

For School Board—Dr. W. G. Cochran, C. B. Day, Mrs. Mary E. Garbut.

For Freeholders—J. R. Toberman, Dr. Hiram Sinsabaugh, W. W. Robinson, H. T. Lee, Walter Lindley, George H. Smith, J. W. Potts, S. C. Hubbell, William Vickery, George R. Crow, L. Bixby, Dr. J. B. Hunt, John McArthur, E. K. Green, William Ruddy.

The chairman, Dr. J. P. Widney, read the following address, which was afterward ordered to be distributed as a campaign document:

The Address.

To the Homes and Home-Builders of Los Angeles: For months past there has been a steadily-growing belief among the citizens that the time has come for some decided movement to check the evil of the sale of liquor by saloons in our midst. This feeling has been a thing, not of one party, but has arisen among members of all political parties. Animated by this feeling, a meeting of citizens, irrespective of party lines, was called to deliberate upon the best means of checking the evil. After several adjourned meetings, and a thorough discussion of the subject, it was deemed desirable, as there are practically no party issues at stake in the ensuing municipal election, to drop party lines and put in the field a citizens' ticket, selected irrespective of party, and which should be pledged to the passage and enforcement of an ordinance suppressing the saloons. By direction of the meeting a citizens' committee of fifteen was appointed, taken from the ranks of all the existing parties, and these were directed to select and put in the field such a ticket. That committee, after careful deliberation, has finished the task assigned to it, and presents for your vote the ticket herewith appended, the ticket having been ratified by a subsequent citizens' meeting.

Among the reasons which have led to this citizens' movement may be mentioned the following, viz:

That the two great political parties into which the country is divided have both persistently neglected to face this question of the saloon evil.

That it is an evil which, as testified by our judiciary, lies at the root of by far the larger portion of the law-breaking in our midst.

That it fills our jails and penitentiaries with criminals, our streets with tramps and beggars and our poorhouses with paupers.

That it in this way imposes a financial burden upon the community, which is felt in the heavy taxation levied to support our courts, our police and our public charities.

That it is an evil, which, more than any other, lies back of and causes political corruption, by debasing the ballot, and making among us a large and constantly increasing purchasable vote, and, in this way, is a constant menace to our civil institutions.

That it is an evil which is daily breaking up homes, corrupting the youth and sapping the conscience of the Nation.

That it is an evil which makes life unsafe upon our streets and in our homes; forcing the community to protect itself at great expense by a hired army of police and sheriffs.

For these reasons—and we ask you are they not sufficiently great?—the citizens have united themselves in a movement to suppress the saloons.

But, it is urged, you have no right to interfere with a legitimate business. The question at once arises, Is it a legitimate business?

Other kinds of business give an equivalent for what they take from the community. The carpenter, the bricklayer, the plasterer, the painter give in the houses which are springing up all over the city an honest equivalent for the money which they receive. The merchant, the farmer, the professional man give an equivalent. All of these are helping to build up community, to make it richer, happier, better.

What equivalent does the saloon give for the money it receives?

Are drunkards, ruined homes, increased taxation, equivalents? Are theft, criminal assault, murder and all the long list of crimes which spring from the saloon an equivalent? Is the army of drunken tramps who line our sidewalks, begging money for drinks, and who make our streets unsafe at night, an equivalent? Is the strong array of police, constables and sheriffs which community must hire to protect itself against these fruits of the saloon, an equivalent? Is any business which takes from community its money and gives back only such a return a legitimate business?

The bawdy house does this, and it is punished by law and raided by the police.

The gambler's den does this, and it is driven from the light of day to darkened back rooms, down narrow alleys, with ever the penalty of the law hanging over it.

The opium den does this, and its keepers and its habitués are dragged into court and fined and imprisoned.

Wherein does the saloon differ from the bawdy house, the gaming den, the opium joint?

As to the question of the legal right of a community to suppress the saloon, the Supreme Court of this State has just affirmed in the case of Pasadena against her saloons, that community has this right.

It is also urged that to drive out the saloons will injure business, and check the growth of the city.

How will it injure business? Will it injure the storekeeper? On the contrary, the money which goes over the bar to the liquor seller's till, will be spent by the drunkard's family for clothing and provisions.

Will it injure the builder, the mechanic? On the contrary, the drunkard whose family is now crowded into two or three rooms of some poor tenement, will be able to build and own his own home, and so new houses will spring up where now none are built.

Will it drive away population or capital? On the contrary, the saloon does this.

Men come and say, "Your taxes are too high for me to invest my money here," and so they go elsewhere to buy and to build. Why are the taxes high? Because all the army of police and the costly machinery of the courts, and the jails which we must support is a defense against the saloon and its fruits.

Another comes and says, "I cannot settle where my children must grow up amid drunkards and saloons," and so he with his money goes elsewhere to buy and to build. These things are of daily occurrence.

There are some things, however, which the suppression of the saloons will drive away. It will drive away the tramp, the gambler, the criminal, for these only congregate where the saloon is allowed.

But how much do these elements add to the business of the city?

It is urged, however, that the money which is now paid in by the saloons as license is needed for our street improvements and to help meet the expense of our city government, and that without it taxation must be higher.

If there were no other solution to the question but high license or absolutely free sale of liquor, then it might be well to put on all the license tax possible, and so use the money as a partial reparation to the community for the great wrong against it; but with the power in our hands to suppress the saloon, the question may be well asked: Are we willing to go on improving our streets and erecting public buildings with blood money? For blood money every dollar of it is.

But is the argument a true one? Would taxes be higher? Does community get back through license more than a small fraction of the cost which the saloon brings upon it? We now employ and pay for a small army of policemen and sheriffs whose work is almost entirely needed to watch and guard against the crime which springs from the saloon. We pay for and maintain an expensive system of courts with all their various officials and their buildings, and all the expense of jury trials and witnesses, and yet from three-fourths to four-fifths of the business which comes before them is, by the statement of our judges, made up of the criminal suits and prosecutions which originate in the saloons. We build and support an expensive city jail and also a county jail, the cost of the construction of which runs up into the hundreds of thousands, and for which we must keep a paid guard of jailers, and within the walls of which we support in idleness during each year hundreds of criminals who are almost entirely the products of the saloons.

We have built and support a large county hospital, filled chiefly with the wrecks of the saloons. We support two well-filled orphan asylums, filled largely with the children of victims of the saloons. We supply funds for several extensive benevolent associations, which are helping to support in every part of the city destitute families, made so in a large portion of the cases, through the saloons. And then comes the private charity unknown and unreported, everywhere among us.

Are we not paying a heavy price for the money which comes to us by the saloon tax? It is like the highway robber who takes from us $100, and then proposes to give us back $10 and call it square.

But, it is said, this is a free country, and you must not interfere with men's rights. Crime against the well-being of the individual or against community has no rights.

Why do we not talk of the rights of the gambler, of the keeper of the brothel, or of the opium-den? And yet these combined commit not one-hundredth part so vast a crime against community as the saloons. The saloon, in fact, is the recruiting station for the gaming table, the brothel and the opium-joint.

But, it is again urged, an ordinance to suppress saloons cannot be enforced.

In reply, it is only necessary to say such ordinances are enforced elsewhere; and if an ordinance, after it has been passed by a majority of the voters of this city, cannot be enforced, it is time one should know the fact.

Fellow-citizens of Los Angeles, who have a pride in the fair name of your town, men who would protect your homes, mothers who love your children, we pray you to weigh this matter carefully in your hearts. Your home circle, if it has so far escaped, may be the next to feel the curse. Do not wait until the iron has entered into your own souls.

And you, upon whom devolves the responsibility of casting the ballot, we urge you, if you believe in the principles which this ticket represents, be present at the polls and vote. Do not allow anything to keep you away. The men who believe in the saloons, and who wish their continuance in our city, will not fail to be there.

Will you be equally in earnest? Remember, your vote may turn the scale. Make this vote a matter of conscience.

Other Proceedings.

A supplemental address containing statistics of the liquor traffic and its evil influences and bad results was ordered printed.

The subscription list was opened and increased from $278.50 to $403.

Mrs. Ira Moore, president of the Woman's Temperance Union reported that the ladies would take an active part at the polls on election day, and had made provisions to have three stationed at each polling place in the city.

The campaign documents were ordered to be distributed at every church and public gathering till election day.

A. W. Hoff exhorted the members present to work earnestly to help elect the ticket of freeholders nominated by the convention.

Short addresses were made by W. D. Gould and Rev. Eli Fay, D.D.

The suggestion of Mr. Burks that those who would each guarantee ten votes for the ticket would rise brought to their feet every one of the 250 assembled in convention.

It is expected that great interest will be manifested in the ticket by the churches.

The following gentlemen were elected as committees in their respective wards to further the interests of the ticket by organizing public meetings to be held next week during each evening, if practicable:

THE WOOLSTEEN GIRLS AND THE DIAMONDS.

A Detective Sure They Are the Same Girls—Some Minor Developments Yesterday—Information Against Hattie Filed.

New developments in the celebrated Woolsteen-Harlan murder case are popping upon all sides; and from the way things are shaping, it is more than probable that several persons, other than the Woolsteen girls, will be drawn into the case. A good deal of attention has been paid to this case by the San Francisco detectives, who are noted for being well up in the profession. The case attracted the attention of Capt. Lees, who has been at the head of the police detective force for a number of years, and after reading a description of the girls, he remembered that he had dealings with such a couple a year ago last July. He wrote to Chief Dasey for photographs of the two women, and when they arrived he at once recognized them. A San Francisco detective, who has a national reputation, arrived in this city yesterday, and was seen by a TIMES reporter, and questioned about the story as published from Capt. Lee's statement.

"I am here on private business," said the detective, "and don't want you to mention my name in connection with the case at the present time. Yes, they are the same girls who were arrested by Capt. Lees a year ago last July, and he could have sent them to San Quentin for committing one of the boldest diamond robberies that was ever unearthed in San Francisco. They hung around San Francisco several weeks before they showed their teeth, but, when they did go to work, they convinced the whole detective force of San Francisco that they were very slick thieves. They walked into Hammer, Smith & Field's jewelry-house, and pretended to examine some fine jewelry, which they said they would purchase as soon as they heard from their father, whom they represented as a wealthy Illinois farmer. During their stay in the store they purchased a few little trinkets, and took their departure, faithfully promising that they would return on the following day. Soon after they left one of the proprietors discovered that he had been robbed. A set of diamond ear-rings that were among the lot shown the girls had disappeared, and he was confident that the young women had worked the old shop-lifting game on him. The Chief of Police was notified at once, and several detectives were sent out to look the thieves up.

"On the following day the two women called on Van Vleit, a Market-street diamond pawnbroker. They offered a pair of earrings for sale. Van Vleit took them and went out, saying that he wished to take them to an expert before he gave them any money. They wanted $600 on the set and said they were worth $700. Van Vleit walked around to Hammer, Smith & Field's and asked their expert to pass on the stones. As soon as he picked them up he saw that they were the very ones that had been stolen the day before. Van Vleit started back to his store, and on his way he met one of Capt. Lees' detectives named Whittaker. He told the detective what he knew and the two walked in and the two girls were placed under arrest. They were taken to police headquarters and closely questioned by Capt. Lees. They were caught 'dead to rights' and acknowledged the whole thing. They broke down, and during a flood of forced tears told how they were very poor and thousands of miles from home. They said they were on the point of starvation and the temptation was so great that they could not resist. The affair was made public and some of the head men of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company interested themselves in the women. The law firm of Winans & Godoy was employed and a great deal of sympathy for the girls was manufactured. The upshot of the business was that the girls were not prosecuted, and of course they got out of a very ugly scrape. They were furnished with money and passes over the Southern Pacific road to Ogden, with letters to the superintendent at that point, who gave them passes on through to their home. There are a dozen men who can identify them without a doubt, and I am positive that some of them will be down here at the Harlan murder trial. My theory of the murder? Well, I think Harlan was killed for his money. I have always thought that, for I look upon those girls as being capable of doing anything."

The latest testimony discovered in the case is to the effect that Hattie and Minnie on the morning after the murder walked into Mrs. Coakley's kitchen, and Minnie went up to the stove and threw a package into the fire. When questioned she said that it simply contained some of Hattie's old papers and letters which she wanted to get rid of, as Hattie and Harlan were to be married very soon. In a few seconds the room was full of the smell of burning leather. The girls then went out in the yard, and while Minnie was hitching up the buggy which Hattie had used the night before, Hattie spent her time crawling around in the grass as if she was looking for something. They then drove off.

THE INFORMATION AGAINST HATTIE.

The long expected information charging Hattie Woolsteen with the murder of Dr. Charles N. Harlan was filed yesterday morning by the District Attorney. Hon. S. M. White, who was present in court, asked for the early arraignment of the defendant, and by consent, Monday, November 28th at 10 a.m., was agreed upon as the time. The information filed is given below, with the names of the witnesses by whom the prosecution intend to prove their case. Mr. White said he was extremely anxious to have the trial proceed at the earliest possible day.

In the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California. The People of the State of California against Hattie Woolsteen, the 4th day of November, 1887.

The said Hattie Woolsteen is accused by the District Attorney in and for the county of Los Angeles, State of California, by this information, of the crime of murder, committed as follows:

The said Hattie Woolsteen on the 6th day of October, A.D. 1887, at the county and State aforesaid, did unlawfully, wilfully, wickedly, felonously, of her malice aforethought, deliberately, and with premeditation, slay, kill and murder one Charles N. Harlan, by shooting him, the said Harlan, in and upon his head and body with a deadly weapon to wit, a pistol, of which shooting, he, the said Harlan, did then and there die, contrary to the form, force and effect of the statute in such cases made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of California.

J. R. DUPUY,
District Attorney in and for the county of Los Angeles, State of California.

The Courts.

In Judge Cheney's court yesterday the trial of R. Springer was begun.

The information against F. P. Weeks was dismissed.

Pleas of not guilty were entered by the following defendants: Joe Smith, Mike Griffin, Patsy McGettigen, J. G. Hendrickson, Charles Dunn and C. Cienfuegos.

Sentence of William Williams was continued to November 28th.

Informations were filed charging Evan Cole with assault to murder, and Hattie Woolsteen with murder. November 28th, at 9 a.m., was set for arraignment.

H. Webber was placed on trial for assault with a deadly weapon, but the information was dismissed owing to variance between proof and allegations.

JUDGE O'MELVENY.

George W. Hope was granted a divorce from Maude Hope.

William Patterson was ordered discharged on a writ of habeas corpus.

JUSTICE AUSTIN.

The trial of Henry Callahan was set for November 26th.

William D. Gesseker was held for burglary, with bail fixed at $1000.

The examination of George Williams for embezzlement was set for November 28th.

JUSTICE TANEY.

For battery, Thomas Gibson was fined $15, O. C. Smith was fined $10, and William Murray $6.

THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

The Commissioners Asked Not to Slight Us.

The joint committee on reception of the commissioners selected to choose a site for the Branch Soldiers' Home met at 3 p.m. yesterday in the Board of Trade rooms.

The meeting was called to order by E. Germain, who read a telegram from Capt. Blanding stating that the commissioners will reach this city next Monday morning, and intend to proceed to San Diego the same evening. The object of the present meeting was to decide what should be done, it seeming that the commissioners proposed to cut this city off with a shorter visit than had been practically promised, and shorter than would suffice to consider the offers of sites that have been and will be made.

Secretary A. M. Lawrence, after consulting his letter book, stated that he had already forwarded to the commissioners, per Wells, Fargo & Co., five different offers of sites, and had Capt. Blanding's acknowledgment of receipt of all of them. All were sealed, so no official knowledge was had here of their contents.

It was stated that one was at Sunset, one at Centinela and one at San Fernando.

Col. O. H. Violet stated that he had personally handed another proposition to Capt. Blanding, and Mr. Fish had handed in one, too, making seven in all now before the board.

It was brought out that Capt. Blanding had led those present to believe that the commissioners would hold a business meeting here and consider in a business way the various propositions made. Part of a day would not be enough to look at even half the tracts, much less to see and pass upon all.

It was moved that Mayor Workman, Gen. Miles and Mr. Germain send a telegram to the commissioners, making the necessary representations. Carried.

Gen. Miles then drew up the following telegram, which was sent off at once:

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.

Gen. W. B. Franklin, President of Commission, Palace Hotel, San Francisco: The city authorities, the Board of Trade and the committee of citizens propose to receive your commission Monday morning, show them all of the properties that it is practicable for them to see on Monday, to give them a banquet on Monday evening and show them the remaining properties on Tuesday. Several valuable sites have been offered, and others of great value will be offered, and it will be impracticable for the commission to see but part of what have been proposed in one day. Arrangements have been made for them to remain two days, and request that they will grant us that time. Please answer.

WILLIAM H. WORKMAN, Mayor.
GEN. N. A. MILES, U. S. A.
E. GERMAIN,
President Board of Trade.

After some other discussion the meeting adjourned to 2 p.m. today, when it is expected that an answer by telegraph will have been received from the commissioners, whereupon the committee can take the necessary steps. It is proposed to have carriages enough to put each member of the commission with three or four prominent citizens, who will show the sites proffered.

A CURIOUS SUIT.

Alleged Sharp Practice by a Real-Estate Man.

J. H. Layton filed a suit in the Superior Court yesterday against Miles W. Dodd. Plaintiff alleges that Dodd represented to him that a stock company was being organized to buy 12,000 acres of the Lankershim ranch at $65 per acre; that Dodd said he had himself invested $17,500, and was going to invest every dollar he could rake up; that plaintiff bought twenty shares at $100 a share; that he has since learned that defendant's representations were false; that defendant was at the time one of the owners of the land, having a contract to buy it at $35 per acre, and that it isn't worth any more; that plaintiff is informed and believes that the land is mostly waste, and that the stock is not worth over $53.84 per share; that he is therefore damaged $1500, and for that amount, with costs, he prays judgment.

Murderer Williams.

The nearing of the motion for a new trial in the case of Williams, the wife-murderer, was again adjourned yesterday till Monday, November 28th. Counsel for the defense had been unable to procure the necessary affidavits to make the motion for a new trial. This is positively the last adjournment to be allowed by the court in the case, and it is more than possible that Williams will start upon his life-long sentence during the early part of next week.

Fifty thousand dollars spent in perfecting the water system of the Porter Land and Water Company at San Fernando, and an inspection will show that no system in the valley can compete with it. The company can give any amount desired. Go and see for yourself. Office at San Fernando, or First and Spring streets, Los Angeles.

Water is king in California. Strangers hould beware of deception about this indispensable article. Citrus fruits can't be raised without it. Many sellers promise water, but few can show it and guarantee it. The Porter Land and Water Company, First and Spring streets, invite inspection of their lands and water at San Ferdando.

San Fernando defies competition in the citrus fruit lands. She defies anybody to find a scale-bug in the valley or a finer climate anywhere. It would pay to go and see the old mission, even if one does not want land. Recollect water in quantities desired by purchasers guaranteed and shown to be already flowing.

Wolfskill Orchard Tract!

At Private Sale,

In large subdivision, fronting San Pedro, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Alameda streets; also Wolfskill, Ceres, Gladys, Ruth, Towne and Stanford avenues.

This magnificent property, lying in the heart of the city, but ten minutes' walk from the Courthouse, must commend itself to all classes of investors, from its proximity to the business center, which is every day growing in this direction. The new postoffice within 4 short blocks.

The New Arcade Depot.

A grant of land 300x1900 feet, fronting Alameda street, between Fourth and Sixth streets, has been made by the owners to the Southern Pacific Railroad on the specific contract on the part of the railroad, with the signature of its President, Hon. Leland Stanford, that it shall at once open and maintain IN FEE PETUITY THEIR PRINCIPAL PASSENGER DEPOT on this property. The contract on the part of the railroad company is being faithfully executed. Side tracks and switch privileges have been granted by the Honorable Board of Common Council, and have been constructed. Work on the depot foundation is in progress and will be completed by December 1st.

Mr. Arthur Brown, the architect and Superintendent of construction of Del Monte Hotel, Monterey, states that he turns over to the company that hotel on Thanksgiving Day, at the dedication of that structure. At once thereafter the force of mechanics will be transferred to this work. The ground plans and elevation of this depot, one of the finest in the world, are now on view at our office. The building will be 507 4-12 feet long and 141 feet wide; the main approach and entrance facing Fifth street and Wolfskill avenue, the trains entering the depot from Alameda side. The building will be constructed of brick, stone, iron, glass, and fittings in natural wood, and will be one of the finest structures of the kind in America, being completed with every convenience for the traveling public.

SPECIAL NOTE—We have placed the opening schedule of prices at a minimum figure and about one-half of quotations for adjacent properties. These prices will be maintained FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY, and we shall advance the schedule as improvements progress. The first increase will probably be from 10 to 20 per cent.

Improvements on the Property.

All the streets leading from the center of the city are now being opened, with continuation of official lines of main thoroughfares maintained. Gravel-work already done on Fifth street, and contracts for stone walks let, with work under way, being but the beginning of vigorous work on all streets and avenues of a same character. The original zanja through the property all being piped.

All the street car lines have applied for franchises to approach the station, which are being granted, and the owners are in full accord with all public privileges by the Honorable Board of Common Council. There are already constructed through the property, and tracks laid, the Central avenue line and Third street line; franchises having been granted on Fifth street and Fourth street under an express clause in the franchise that work shall commence as early as practicable. This virtually places all car lines in direct connection with this principal depot.

We take pleasure in presenting this magnificent property to investors of all classes, and feel sure it cannot fail to commend itself for the advantages it possesses. For availability to the business center, combined with the fact that the schedule of prices is about one-half of that placed on any property in the vicinity.

SPECIAL CREDIT TERMS—One-third cash, one-third in six months, one-third in twelve months. Interest 8 per cent. per annum.

TITLE PERFECT, a certificate of the same being handed to each purchaser, the papers being executed by the original owners, who have resided on the property half a century.

We make the fullest guarantee for our statements. We invite every one to visit the property and judge for themselves of the many advantages this property possesses as an inside investment in which an early great profit is self evident.

Conveyances at our office upon application.

"The Times" has a larger circulation than any other newspaper published in Southern California.

STATISTICS OF BUILDING.

In the Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES, to be issued January 1, 1888, it is desired to present as full statistics as possible of the building operations in Los Angeles during the year now drawing to a close. Unfortunately, there is no official record of these new structures, as the city government has no superintendent of buildings. The lists furnished by the architects comprehend only the more important edifices and are notably incomplete. THE TIMES therefore appeals directly to owners and builders, requesting that each furnish a concise statement of any building or buildings erected for him, or by him, during the year. The statement should embrace the following facts:

1. Owner's name.
2. Character of building, whether of brick or stone, residence or business house.
3. Number of stories.
4. Number of apartments.
5. Cost and location.

It is for the interest of all that an adequate showing be made of this phase of the city's progress, and we therefore request the coöperation of all who have had to do with house-building.

The lists should be left at the TIMES office or forwarded through the mail before December 10th.

PRESIDENT GREVY is an octogenarian.

THE Third Ward will again decline to be colonized.

THE faro games are not suppressed, but the Burlingame will be.

THE caucus burglars of last year will have no better luck this time.

THE Chinese-American Bank project has fizzled—gone up the spout, so to speak.

SNOW at Truckee. Sunshine and fruits and berries and blossoms at Los Angeles.

GEORGE GOULD is on his way to the Pacific Coast. Gosh! Hope he won't steal our boom.

ON the 18th London was wrapped in darkness. The street lamps and house lights were kept lighted all day long.

DEATH is yet a puzzle, says the Oak Echoes. Yes, and it is likely to remain as it is—an awful, unfathomable puzzle.

CROOKED whisky and "smooth" politics are no more in favor this year than they were last, when the floor was swept with their advocates.

BURLINGAME's face will never elect him Councilman for the decent and intelligent Third Ward. The voters will take a good look at it, and elect somebody else.

PROGRESSIVE Canadians are urging the necessity and propriety of a commercial union with the United States. Progressive Americans are willing to swallow the whole Dominion.

THINGS are getting very bilious in Europe. Mobs of 100,000 in London, the crofters in Scotland, the Irish stew, and the French hurrah, would seem to indicate a raspy state of the European liver.

ALREADY the young blades of grass are springing up through the freshly watered earth. Nature will soon put on her winter dress of green, and we shall look fairer than ever in the eyes of the "tenderfoot."

"MR." MORROW'S application for a change of venue had been granted. The case goes to the Superior Court of Sonoma county. Sonoma is a Democratic section. Wonder if the finger of the boss is in that pie?

BURLINGAME boasts that the several hundred men in his employ are all residents of the Third Ward, same as before. He also stands ready to contract with the bosses to have his gang show up in any other ward as occasion may require. Burlingame is a versatile cuss when it comes to the scheming line.

Paved Streets.

The first of our winter rains has fallen, leaving behind, as usual, streets filled with mud, which are no credit to our city. The work of street paving, the urgent necessity for which was exemplified last year, and all the years hitherto, has not been completed. With heavy rains Los Angeles will have to wallow, as heretofore, in mud and mire on the majority of her streets, and breathe the foul odors arising from the muddy conglomeration. If the best of atmospheric conditions did not naturally exist here the vile condition of our winter streets would beget sickness. We should have a heavy penalty to pay for our neglect of the street improvements which are imperative in a large city.

With well-paved streets, what a magnificent city Los Angeles might be. The number of rainy days is not large in Southern California. The weather intervening between each storm is usually the finest that this climate produces. The sky is of that deep, intense blue peculiar to this semi-tropic section. The sunshine is of rare radiance. The air is pure and delightful. It is like a tonic, effervescing with healthfulness. It is the season, of all the year, when driving is most delightful. There is perfect freedom from dust and from chill. If only there were freedom from mud the conditions for outdoor pleasure would be complete. Our streets should be put into condition for a large out-of-door winter life. They should be so improved that every avenue and thoroughfare would afford a pleasant drive. Our streets, if well kept and cleanly, might be as lively with splendid equipages, and as gay with thronging pedestrians as Paris, or Berlin, or Washington. Everything aside from them invites into the pure open air. It is the season of Nature's resurrection when springing life is everywhere, and when to live in the sunshine is a delight.

But our streets, after every heavy rain, become almost impassable. Even the ordinary business of the city is conducted for some days thereafter with no small degree of discomfort, on account of the mud. Los Angeles has endured this condition of things long enough. Its continuance ought not much longer to remain possible. There is no improvement needed more in our rapidly-improving metropolis than well-paved streets. They would net us more comfort, and speak more loudly for our progress than anything else. We are big enough and metropolitan enough to have them. We are rich and prosperous enough to pay for the paving of every business thoroughfare and the principal residence streets of the city. And it would be money in our treasury to do it, too.

Like the Handle of a Pump.

Hon. W. W. Morrow, Representative in Congress from the Fourth District (San Francisco), has laid out a one-sided schedule of Congressional labor for the California delegation, the members of which take their seats in the House of Representatives next month.

Mr. Morrow says that the delegation is expected to pull together for the purpose of making an effort to secure an appropriation for a training ship for apprentices, increased appropriations for marine telegraph about San Francisco, more money for a San Francisco postoffice site, $17,500 for the repair of the Hartford, $175,000 more for the construction department of Mare Island, a survey of California public lands, and a stringent law against Chinese immigration.

Now, where do "we uns" come in? This prearranged schedule doesn't recognize Southern California at all. The training ship money, if received, will go to Mare Island, which completes the fact that all of the money to be asked for goes, if received, to San Francisco and Vallejo.

Not a word of money for harbor improvements and fortifications at Port Harford, Santa Barbara, Ventura, San Pedro, Anaheim Landing, Newport and San Diego. Not a word of lighthouse improvements at those points. A lighthouse was formerly maintained at Anaheim Landing, but it has been abandoned for years and is now a ruin.

Not a dollar is to be asked for increased postoffice facilities here in the city of Los Angeles, or in San Bernardino or San Diego. And in the latter city the people have been compelled to pay for additional postoffice help by private subscription—taking up a collection, as we sometimes do to bury a well-considered pauper.

And yet the press of the N. C. B. affect to doubt the unanimity of public opinion in Southern California on the subject of State division. Mr. Morrow's schedule of Congress is like the handle of a pump—all on one side, a fact which goes far toward solidifying another fact, to wit, that on the subject of State division public opinion in Southern California is all on one side.

The Pardon-Broking Iniquity.

It has been for years an open secret to the initiated that a regular system of brokerage in pardons was being carried on at the San Quentin State Prison.

The exposé now pending reveals some ugly things, and goes to show that the ramifications of the dastardly business extended from the prison to the Governor's office.

A well-known San Francisco lawyer affirms that Harry Dam, executive secretary to Gov. Stoneman, prevented the issuance of a pardon on behalf of a man whom the lawyer says was innocent, and the mainstay of a large family.

According to the lawyer's story, the Governor became interested in the case and bade him take the papers to Secretary Dam for the purpose of having them properly filled out, and that Dam, when he read the papers, bluntly asked what was in the case for him; that Dam demanded $500, and that the prisoner, being poor and unable to raise that sum, remained in jail.

Now comes the statement of A. G. Hinman, under sheriff of Santa Clara county, and a former official of the San Quentin prison, who asserts that toward the close of Gov. Stoneman's administration, José Silvera, a Portuguese wife-murderer, obtained a pardon, and that $1000 was paid for it.

In addition to the foregoing, Mrs. Clara Foltz comes to the fore as the champion of a young man imprisoned upon a false accusation. Mrs. Foltz asserts that she had secured unimpeachable evidence of the young man's innocence; that the judge who tried the young fellow, and the jury that found him guilty, were satisfied with the new evidence which she had obtained, but that all came to naught because she was unable to fee Stoneman's executive secretary, Harry Dam. Speaking of this case, Mrs. Foltz said to a Call reporter:

"Conway was without money and I could not fee Dam, and the consequence is that the young man still languishes in jail. There are numbers of men in the State prisons who are innocent, while guilty ones have walked out on pardons."

These are serious charges, and they should be sifted to the bottom. If true, they prove a practice worse, more scoundrelly and dangerous than the jury-bribing iniquity, and for the fair fame of justice and the safety of society all who are guilty should be punished.

Shameful Presidential Alliances.

The St. Paul Pioneer-Press says of Mr. Cleveland's action in relation to the recent election in New York:

"Mr. Cleveland has deliberately allied himself with the worst element in New York politics in order to secure the support of the Democratic machine in that State in his efforts to be renominated.

"There is no question that this is the most shameful spectacle in politics this generation has witnessed."

But in this action President Cleveland has formed no new alliances. He has simply sought to secure for his own political ends the influence of those elements with which he has, since the beginning of his political career, been in sympathy, and sought to conciliate and use. There is not one whit's difference between Mr. Cleveland as President and Mr. Cleveland as a Buffalo ward politician, as far as principle is concerned. This is the cold truth, notwithstanding Mr. Cleveland's prolonged protestations as a reformer and an independent.

The Third Ward.

One of the Republican caucus nominations for the Council in the Third Ward is not a good nomination, and should not be confirmed by the convention or the people. We mean the man Burlingame, who played the unscrupulous part of an under-boss colonist last year, and at the bidding of worse men, overran the ward with his creatures in the attempt to override the will of the reputable and bona fide residents and voters. They rose in their might, however, and overthrew Burlingame, Busbody, Boyce and the entire gang. These political malefactors have again bobbed up and are repeating their old tactics. They are trying to win by persistence—by tiring the people out. Let the people refuse to be exhausted. Let them not weary in well doing, but see to it that the gang are again made very tired.

For the Council—Republican Caucus Nominees.

The Republican caucuses in the several wards last night were slimly attended. The nominations made for Councilmen were as follows: First, F. G. Randle and Newell Matthews; Second, J. M. Skinner; Third, W. H. Bonsall and E. C. Burlingame (the notorious colonizer of 1886); Fourth, J. W. Browning and John McIlmoil; Fifth, Dr. H. Sinsabaugh and J. Frankenfield.

The conspicuously unfit man in the above list is Burlingame. He is a shameless political trafficker and makes no concealment of his desire to go to the Council for the purpose of using the position for his personal advantage. He should be elected to stay at home.

ANOTHER of those sickening sights which from time to time bespeak the unnecessary brutality of our method of enforcing the death penalty occurred yesterday at San José in the hanging of Goslow, the Los Gatos murderer. When Goslow fell from the trap his body remained motionless, blood was seen gushing from the neck, and when the body was cut down it was discovered that the rope had cut through nearly to the bone, severing the jugular, and blood poured from the body while it was being removed.

THE Rev. Mr. Candler, a Methodist clergyman of Nashville, Tenn., whose denunciation of the stage called up a lady in the congregation to answer [illegible] for an exhibition at having an encyclopedical head, the courage of a Spanish game cock and the tenacity of an English bulldog. Now, if he only had the ears of a Tennessee "mool" and the claws of the boss of buzzards, the American eagle, the reverend gentleman might truly pose as a holy terror.

THE evangelical churches in America have not increased in the same ratio as the population; for, while from 1800 to 1880 the population increased twenty-seven fold, the membership of all evangelical churches increased only nine fold.

A WASHINGTON correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean says that President Cleveland doesn't read books, but makes a study of the newspapers. His executive left ear must be kept continually burning.

MEN AND WOMEN OF THE STATE.

Grove L. Johnson is seriously ill.

James Phelan is making investments in real estate in Portland, Or.

Secretary O'Connor of the Supreme Court was in Fresno on the 23d.

Surveyor-General Reichert and Deputy State Librarian Freeman were at the Bay City on the 23d.

Railroad Commissioner A. Abbott of Sacramento was at the Occidental, San Francisco, yesterday.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Holtt attended the San Joaquin County Teachers' Institute.

Fish Commissioner Sherwood of Marysville went to Truckee on the 23d to inspect six new fish ladders in the river at that place.

Assistant Adjutant-General Perrie Kewen went to Fresno on the 22d to be present at an election of a lieutenant of the local military company.

It is understood that Captain of Police W. R. Thomas of Oakland is being pushed for warden at San Quentin Prison. Capt. Thomas has given satisfaction as the head of the police department in Oakland, and it is claimed he will fill the office of warden with ability. He was for several years chief deputy in the Alameda County Clerk's office, and is a prominent member of the G.A.R. He is a nephew of Gov. Waterman.

Mrs. Valensin, wife of Count Valensin, was in Sacramento on the 23d. Mrs. Valensin was the daughter of James McCauley, familliarly known as "Old Jim McCauley," who was a large land-owner in the neighborhood of Galt, Sacramento county, and who died about a year ago. Mrs. Valensin married the Count while traveling with her father in Italy. "Old Jim" was a rough Missourian, a regular hickory Jackson Democrat, and hated all nobility, and particularly his son-in-law, to whom he always referred as "No Count Valensin."

Ex-Congressman "Jim" Budd of Stockton was viewing the elephant in San Francisco during the past week. "Jim" is the hero of the famous buckboard campaign of 1882, in which he defeated Frank Page for Congress. Budd, accompanied by his bright little wife, traveled the entire district, over mountain and plain and gulch and valley, on a buckboard; while his colleague, in the matter of stump oratory, now a member of the Los Angeles editorial fraternity, preceded him by stage and private conveyance. The district lay largely in the mountains, and the novelty of the buckboard layout captured the people. To his infinite and pleasurable surprise, when the election was over, "Jim" Budd found himself a member of Congress.

There have been numerous complaints of violations of the garbage ordinance by the dumping of garbage on the grounds at Seventh and Alameda, besides other places, and the Mayor yesterday notified the Chief of Police to place an officer at that place and arrest all offenders. Forty Buildings Burned at the Potrero.

The Endless McDonald Squabbles Before the Courts.

Morrow Gets His Case Transferred to Sonoma County.

Dimmig Arraigned for the Murder of Benhayon—Heavy Damages Recovered Against a Steamship Company—Fireman Killed—Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Fire broke out at 12:30 today in the Union Hotel at the Potrero, near the Union Iron Works, and in a few minutes the entire structure was in flames. The fire was quickly communicated to the Huntington House, and from there to an adjoining three-story frame building. The entire block was soon in flames. A heavy wind was blowing and before any stream could be turned on the burning buildings the flames were rapidly working up over the bluff toward the next street, and by 1 o'clock three blocks of buildings were on fire. In the meantime an alarm had been turned on, but when the companies arrived they were unable to do any effective work owing to lack of water. A fire-boat was dispatched from headquarters, and it commenced to pump through over 1500 feet of hose from the bay. The water did not appear to have any effect upon the fire, and it only died out when there was nothing else for it to feed on. The fire destroyed over forty buildings and about the same number of families are left destitute. The Union Iron Works had a narrow escape, and the windows in the rear were all cracked by the heat. The loss is estimated at $75,000.

Michael Nagle, a driver of the hook and ladder truck, while going to the fire was thrown from his seat, and the heavy wheels of the truck passed over him, breaking several ribs and injuring his spine. It is believed that his injuries will prove fatal.

LATER.—Nagle died this evening.

The heaviest loser was August Schultz, owner of the Union Hotel, Kensington House, United Workingman's Hotel and a dozen or more residences, his entire loss amounting to about $35,000. His insurance was placed at $13,000. The values of the houses were as follows: United Workingmen's Hotel, $3500; Union Hotel, occupied by Mrs. Presno, $2000; two two-story houses owned by A. Schultz, one occupied by himself and the other by Charles Bruce, $3000; a two-story frame dwelling owned by A. Hermann and occupied by himself and C. Hildebrant, $3000; a house owned by Hermann, $1000; Mrs. Jackson's bakery, $750; Herman's saloon, occupied by Rasmussen, $1500; three houses, owned by Mrs. Williams, of two stories each, $5000. The Kensington House was damaged to the extent of about $800.

Capt. White of the fire patrol estimated the loss, while on the grounds, at from $75,000 to $80,000. The insurance is very light, not being more than $30,000.

Jacob Freeze, proprietor of the Shasta House, in moving property from his house, in anticipation of the flames, fell from an awning into a gulley, forty feet below, landed on some water-pipes, and had his ribs crushed in. He is not expected to live.

BENHAYON'S DEATH.

Preliminary Examination of Dimmig for Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The preliminary examination of John A. Dimmig, charged with the murder of Henry Benhayon, was begun in the Police Court this afternoon. Benhayon's mother testified that she saw Benhayon last about noon on October 22d.

Mrs. Higson told the story of finding Benhayon's body. City Physician Blach testified that the autopsy showed death from cyanide of potassium. Blach being cross-examined, stated that convulsions follow and death is instantaneous, meaning in about five minutes. Dr. Carpenter assisted at the autopsy. Externally there were no marks of violence. Between the scalp and skull was some clotted blood, the result of a blow. It might have been caused during the convulsions or by the head striking when Benhayon fell.

Dr. Galway testified that a chemical anaylsis showed two grains of cyanide potassium, some chloroform, alcohol and camphor.

The examination was continued until tomorrow.

BOB MORROW'S CASE.

Judge Sullivan Gives Him a Change of Venue to Sonoma.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Judge Sullivan this morning granted the motion for a change of venue in the case of Robert F. Morrow, and transferred the case to the Superior Court of Sonoma county.

In transferring the case to Sonoma county Judge Sullivan dwelt at length upon the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the People vs. Yokum, in which the judgment of the Superior Court of Kern county, denying a motion for a change of venue, was reversed. Yokum was charged with murder, and the extent to which public indignation was aroused against him in Kern county, Judge Sullivan believed, was similar to the state of the public mind in San Francisco against Morrow, and he stated that if Morrow's application was denied, he believed a judgment of conviction under the present circumstances would be reversed by the Supreme Court.

THE M'DONALDS.

Their Family Feud Again Brought Before the Courts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The demurrer of Dr. R. H. McDonald to the complaint of Clara Belle McDonald, in which she sues him for $500,000 for having alienated the affections of her husband, was argued and submitted to Judge Hunt today. The demurrer states that a wife cannot commence a suit without the consent of her husband, and further, that under the laws of this State a wife cannot bring suit against a person for having alienated the affections of her husband.

R. H. McDonald confessed judgment to the demurrer of Mrs. McDonald to his complaint for a divorce, and was allowed ten days to file a complaint.

NOTES FROM THE BAY.

The Government Loses a Suit—Arranging for a Celebration.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Judge Hoffman today rendered a decision in the United States District Court dismissing the declaration in the suit of the Government against Brandenstein & Co., brought to remove certain fencing which was claimed to inclose Government lands in Monterey county. In their answer defendants denied that such was the case, but averred that they had purchased railroad lands which they had fenced in, and had built gates and constructed roads in order that public lands might be made accessible.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

Ex-Assistant Surveyor of the Port Whaley gave himself up into the custody of the United States Marshal today, learning that he had been indicted for connection with Chinese certificate frauds. He was released on $5000 bonds. Henry L. Fox and J. M. Dall were his sureties.

THE GOVERNMENT LOSES AGAIN.

In the case of the United States against George G. Havens and his bondsmen, the jury [illegible] Judge [illegible] dered a verdict for the defendants. Mr. Havens was Receiver of Public Moneys at the Stockton land office sixteen years ago. The Secretary of the Treasury sent him a large sum of greenbacks, which were then worth only 45 cents on the dollar. This led to a dispute when Havens's accounts were settled up. The Government sued Havens and his bondsmen to recover $12,000.

ARRANGING A CELEBRATION.

Mayor Pond, chairman of the Committee of the Board of Trade, appointed to arrange for a proper celebration of the completion of the California and Oregon line, has called a meeting for tomorrow evening to make the preliminary arrangements. In response to a dispatch from this city the Mayor of Portland has replied, announcing the desire and willingness of the authorities and merchants of that city to join in hearty coöperation with the celebration here.

CHARLES COONS' WILL.

The will of Charles M. Coon, son of the first Mayor of San Francisco, was filed for probate today by his widow, Cassandra H., named therein as executor. The estate is valued at $30,000, and is bequeathed to the widow with the exception of some personal property bequeathed to his sister and two brothers.

RECOVERED DAMAGES.

Michael O'Rourke, fireman of the steamship San José, who in March, 1886, sustained injuries aboard the vessel which resulted in the loss of a leg, has been awarded $7220 damages against the company by the Circuit Court. He sued for $30,000 for the breaking of his leg.

HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

O'Brien, Mosengrave's slayer, was held in $10,000 for manslaughter.

NOTES.

John Johnson, a seaman, has been indicted for killing Capt. John Williams of the ship Occidental, on the high seas, March 16th last.

The bail of C. E. Kinard, accused by Under-Sheriff O'Connor of perjury, has been reduced to $2000.

RAILWAY NEWS.

The Rock Island Pushing for the Coast—Pacific Mail to Be Subsidized by the Roads, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SANTA FE (N. M.), Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Land prospectors in from Colfax county, N. M., state that the Rock Island Railroad Company has 2000 teams and a large number of men at work on its grades in northeastern New Mexico from Seward, Kan., across No Man's Land, and west to a point sixty miles east of Ocato, on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé. The work of the grading is in progress. Grade stakes have been driven both to Ocato and Dorsey stations, at one of which points the Rock Island is to cross the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, reaching the Rio Grande Valley via Cimarron Pass and Juan Vigil Cañon in Taos Valley, sixty miles north of this city. This is the Pacific Coast line of the Rock Island.

SACRAMENTO WILL CELEBRATE.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 25.—Mayor Gregory has written the Mayors of San Francisco, Portland and Salem, Or., asking their coöperation with citizens of Sacramento in the celebration of the driving of the last spike of the California and Oregon Railroad.

PORTLAND (Or.), Nov. 25.—Mayor Gates corresponded with the Mayor of Sacramento regarding the coming railroad celebration when the railroad connection is established with California. A special meeting of the Common Council will be held tomorrow to take some immediate steps toward the celebration. The citizens of Portland will accord a fitting reception to the California guests.

FREIGHT RATES TO GO UP.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—As a result of the meeting of the transcontinental lines here today, it is asserted that the Canadian Pacific will be allowed to charge a slightly lower rate and participate in California and Oregon business, and that material advances will be made in the present rate. It has also been agreed to pay the Pacific Mail Steamship Company a subsidy of $65,000 per month, the latter agreeing to maintain rates and keep out of the higher class of business.

ANOTHER NEW LINE.

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.), Nov. 25.—It is announced that B. L. Cook of Chicago, one of the directors of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railway, now in this city, will send out a corps of surveyors at once to run a new line by way of Copper City to Durango, Colo.

A Tugboat's Mishap.

PORT COSTA, Nov. 25.—The steam tug Alert was thrown by a strong current against the ship C. S. Bement today. The Alert's smokestack, steam whistle and fog horn were carried away. The steam pipes breaking below filled the engineer's and fireman's quarters with steam. The engineer was carried out unconscious and slightly scalded.

Fire at a Mine.

PLYMOUTH, Nov. 25.—The hoisting works at Bunker Hill mine and all the timber in the lumber-yard were entirely destroyed by fire this morning.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The others all escaped through the south shaft. The loss is not known, but will reach between $30,000 and $40,000; slightly insured. Eighty men are thrown out of work.

The Season's Vintage Very Small.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—The recent low estimates of the available wine yield for this season is still further reduced by reports from all the leading wine growing sections that lactic fermentation has become generally prevalent. This trouble has the effect of reducing the marketable wine yield to a very low figure.

Fatally Beaten in Jail.

VISALIA, Nov. 25.—A Frenchman named John Genat died here today from the effects of injuries received at Tulare a month ago. He was arrested and confined in the calaboose, where another prisoner jumped on him and broke several ribs and his collar-bone. An autopsy will be held.

For Defamation of Character.

A Rich Gold Strike Near Red Bluff—The Season's Vintage Very Small—The Harlan Murder Trial Almost Ended—Other Coast Gleanings.

By Telegraph to The Times.

ORLAND, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] J. R. James, an employé of the railroad company, was arrested last night for disturbing the peace. About 4 o'clock this morning the cry was raised that the jail was on fire. The whole building was enveloped in flames before any one got there, and it was impossible to approach the door. When the building was burned to the ground a man's remains were found, and a pipe was found near the bones. It is supposed that James had been smoking and set fire to the building. He had been drinking before he was arrested. His cries for help were heard by residents in the vicinity of the jail.

WATERMAN.

The Governor Starts on an Investigating Crusade.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 25.—Gov. Waterman and Private Secretary Boruck and party have gone to San Francisco to make an investigation of the affairs of the State Library.

M. Fiske, Dr. J. R. Davidson, Dr. Charles A. McQuester and Dr. Thomas J. Letourneaux, members of the San Francisco Board of Health. S. P. Maslin, secretary of the Board of Examiners, and a shorthand reporter, accompany him in his tour of inspection.

THE DEATH PENALTY.

Execution of Charles Goslow at San Jose—A Quick Death.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Charles Goslow was hung today for the murder of H. A. Grant at Los Gatos, January 19th last. He slept but little during the night, but when day dawned was quiet and self-possessed. He ate little breakfast and conversed with friends who called to see him. As the hours passed Goslow's wonderful nerve, somewhat aided by stimulants, remained. Priests remained with him until the death march began. Some scenes more or less touching occurred in the cell. His brother Joseph came and Goslow broke down, and the brothers wept.

At 11:20 Goslow was bound by Sheriff Sweigent and deputies, and at 11:42 the procession started down the stairs for the gallows, headed by Fathers Calzia and Picardo. The prisoner was supported by officers and followed by friends and reporters. The gallows had been erected in the inner jail-yard, secure from curious observers on the neighboring housetops. On the gallows Goslow bore himself well. The rope and black cap were then adjusted. When the deputies stepped back Goslow started to leave the trap, but was immediately replaced upon it. The trap was sprung at 11:47. There was not a quiver of the body. When the body was cut down it was discovered that the rope had cut through nearly to the bone, severing the jugular. Blood poured from him when being removed. The neck was broken. The body was turned over to his wife, and will be buried from Santa Clara.

Crooked Divorces by the Hundred—Snowstorm—Epidemics.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The Labor Bureau at Washington has engaged E. R. L. Gould, formerly a professor in the Johns Hopkins University, to investigate the divorces granted here, the object being to formulate a national divorce law. Gould found 3600 divorces granted in twenty years. They were mainly obtained by eastern so-called lawyers.

The first snowstorm lasted Thanksgiving night and all day.

Diphtheria and scarlet fever are almost epidemic throughout the city and Territory. Several deaths are reported. Physicians urge strict quarantine, and desire bright, cold weather.

Stoneman Failed to Qualify.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Railway Commissioners Stoneman of California, Pound of Wisconsin, and Cook of Ohio, appointed by President Cleveland to examine the last completed section of the California and Oregon road, were notified by Secretary Lamar on Saturday that, owing to the failure of Gov. Stoneman to take the oath and forward the same to the Secretary, he was not a legal commissioner, and consequently the inspection was invalid, and would have to be gone over again. The commissioners, with Col. Crocker, accordingly left tonight for Delta.

The Harlan Murder Trial.

WOODLAND, Nov. 25.—The defense closed this afternoon, and witnesses were called by the prosecution in rebuttal. W. C. Curtis said that Harlan told him at the jail, that he did the deed in self-defense.

The prosecution announced that they would try to close their testimony by tomorrow noon.

That Dynamited Boiler.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), Nov. 25.—A number of engineers, at the request of the Coroner's jury, visited the scene of the boiler explosion at the sawmill of W. Z. Wilson & Co., and report to that body that they are satisfied that the explosion was caused by chemical action in the boiler. A subpœna was issued for Louis Beck, who it is thought knows something of the cause of the explosion. A search warrant was issued to search Beck's premises for explosives or a treatise on chemistry.

The Jury Disagreed.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 25.—T. J. Duncan, charged with receiving money and property by false pretences, was discharged this evening. The jury could not agree. HERR MOST'S TRIAL.

Some Very Timely Swearing by His Ignorant Followers.

Jones of Florida Denies That He Has Gone to the Dogs.

The Great Insurance Case at Joliet Ends in the Defeat of the Company—A Cincinnati Suicide Found to Have Embezzled Trust Funds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated press.] The trial of Herr Most was continued today. Counsel for defense, in his opening address, declared that it was not Most, but free speech that was on trial. He declared among other things that he would prove that when one of Most's auditors wanted to begin the work of destruction at once, Most counselled patience.

Adolph Schenck, who was convicted with Most last year for taking part in an unlawful assemblage, was the first witness. Officer Sachs had testified that Schenck had presided at the meeting and introduced Most. Schenck swore that he was on Staten Island on the night in question. He admitted that he was an Anarchist, and in favor of bringing about a revolution in society by force if necessary. He described anarchy as a condition of things wherein the people rule themselves in communities without any State or general government, without courts, without law. Common sense should be the only rule of conduct. There should be no punishment for wrongdoing. The guilty person's own conscience in time would set him right.

Moritz Schultzer, a printer in Most's office, swore that he presided at the meeting and introduced Most. When a voice called for revenge, Most replied: "Not today. Revenge is held in the lap of the future." The witness insisted that Most had not recommended any assassination or counseled any violations of the law.

Emil Kosse said that Most made no threats. The witness did not know whether the United States was a republic or a monarchy. He had not studied the form of government.

JONES OF FLORIDA.

Reports About the ex-Senator Denied —He Issues a Card.

DETROIT (Mich.), Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Regarding the many stories which have been circulated recently about ex-Senator Jones, it is stated tonight that, while his finances are not in as good a condition as when he was in receipt of a salary from the United States, he is not in any sense a pauper, nor is his mind unbalanced. Some weeks ago Mr. Jones chose to leave his hotel and became the guest of P. O'Neill, of whose house he is still an inmate, by invitation. Today a man took the liberty of circulating a subscription list in aid of the ex-Senator. This was the last straw, and tonight Mr. Jones issued the following card, the first expression regarding himself that he has made since coming to Detroit:

"I see it stated in an evening paper that an appeal is being made to the public in my behalf. I have never taken any notice up to this time of anything said in the public press about me or my family. I now desire to say that I have given no authority to any one to ask any contribution of money for me, and that I am not an applicant for public charity. CHARLES W. JONES."

Mr. Jones stated that he proposed returning to Florida to live after he has settled up his affairs in Detroit, and will be a candidate for United States Senator, to succeed Wilkinson Call of Jacksonville.

ARSON NOT PROVED.

End of a Sensational Suit for Insurance Money.

JOLIET (Ill.), Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The jury in the case of the California Fire Insurance Company against the Lambert & Bishop Wire Fence Company, to recover insurance losses paid, on the ground of incendiarism, returned a verdict this morning for the defendants. The case was one of the most important of the kind ever tried in the State, on account of the prominence of the parties concerned, and the sensational character of the charges made by the insurance company. It attracted wide-spread attention throughout the State. The insurance company rested its case principally upon the testimony of J. M. Whyte, formerly superintendent for Lambert & Bishop. This man claimed that he had set fire to the buildings, having been instigated to the deed by the defendants, who wanted the insurance money. This statement was denied in toto by Lambert & Bishop, who, besides testifying in their own defense, introduced other testimony to show that the fire did not originate as Whyte stated it did. Whyte is to be prosecuted.

THE WAGES OF SIN.

A Cincinnati Suicide Proves to Have Been a Defaulter.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] It is reported that Charles Albert Kebler, the attorney who committed suicide on Wednesday, was driven to the deed by the approaching revelation of heavy forgeries committed by him in the management of estates and trust funds entrusted to his care. The estimate is made that the liabilities incurred amount to $175,000 while the property left by Kebler will not exceed $60,000. The persons most seriously affected were his own family and friends. The revelation disclosed the cause to be nothing more than an effort to keep up a style of luxurious living beyond his means. The use of trust funds having been begun, continuance became apparently necessary. Friends find the case so strange that they attribute it to some form of insanity.

THE ABBOTT EPISODE.

It Still Stirs Up Trouble Among the Methodists.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.), Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church South met today and considered the matter of the utterances of Rev. Dr. Kelly regarding the Emma Abbott episode at the McKendrie Church. Dr. Kelly, in a published card at the time, apparently defended Miss Abbott and the conference at Tuscaloosa three days ago voted to request his resignation as treasurer of the Board of Missions. Dr. Kelly appeared before the board today, and presented a statement, saying in substance that his card is not sufficiently explicit, and he did not intend to defend the interruption of worship at the MacKendrie Church. He is opposed to any attendance at theaters by members of the church.

RAILWAY LANDS.

Secretary Lamar's Decision Touching the Recent Forfeiture.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] The Secretary of the Interior has rendered a decision in the case of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, upon which a rule has been issued to show cause why certain lands adjacent to and co-terminus with the uncompleted portion of the main line of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company which are intersected by the line of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, should not be withdrawn from the operation of the grant to the latter company. The decision holds that the forfeiture of the grant to the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, as to the uncompleted portion of said road. The Secretary holds that the effect of the Atlantic and Pacific forfeiture was to make the United States a tenant in common with the Southern Pacific Company as to the common lands, and therefore all the odd-numbered sections within the common limits should still remain in reservation until partition thereof.

The Spelter Market Cornered.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—A local commercial paper asserts that the spelter market has been cornered by a French syndicate, which has operated through its agents in Missouri, Illinois and Kansas, where about three-fourths of the total output is annually produced. The impression prevails that the furnaces are completely sold up for November, December and possibly January. Prices are higher.

Chicago's Big Bucket Shop.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—State's Attorney Grinnell, who is trying to have the bucket shop keepers indicted, said today that they had promised him proof that the regular board of trade was nothing but a big bucket shop. If the proof was forthcoming, he declared that he would bring the case of the board before the Grand Jury.

LAKE PERILS.

Disasters Caused by the Great Gale of Wednesday—Escape of the Crew of a Wrecked Vessel.

By Telegraph to The Times.

LEAMINGTON (Ont.), Nov. 25.—[By the Associated Press.] Mate Murphy, of the schooner White Star, ashore at Point Pelle, tells the following story of the disaster:

"There was a fearful sea on all Wednesday night. With it was a thick fog that made it impossible to see a light. Suddenly there was a crash, and the vessel went on head first. It was a rocky bottom which ground right through her, and she was filling a few moments after she struck. There was one yawl-boat aboard, and we managed to get this to the side. There were seven of us, and the little yawl would hold but five. Two had to stay aboard. My brother, the captain, chose to stay on board. With him was one of the sailors. As the fifth man slid down the line the yawl capsized, and we were thrown into the water. Some of the boys got on top of the upturned yawl, and others caught drift-wood. We knocked around until daylight, and were finally beached, all of us alive."

Murphy says the men will freeze to death if boats are not sent to them at once. About the last hope went out this morning when a telegram was received from Sandusky, from which point a life-boat was expected. It said: "Can't send a boat as the fog is too thick."

LATER.—Capt. Murphy and a sailor named Hunter were rescued by fishermen this morning. The captain is apparently none the worse for his nineteen hours' exposure, but Hunter suffers terribly from cold, and is in a critical condition. The White Star has broken in two and is a total wreck.

MORE DISASTERS.

SHEBOYGAN (Mich.), Nov. 25.—The boat blowing signals of distress last night off this port was the propeller Albany. She is ashore at the foot of Bois Blanc Island, and is full of water. The crew were saved. The barge Montgomery is near her, also in bad shape; and two large steamers are reported ashore below Sheboygan light. All went on last night during the storm.

Killed in a Railway Wreck.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25.—Two freight trains on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad collided on a sharp curve, fifteen miles from this city this morning. Both trains were completely demolished and three men killed and five others injured. One of the killed was William Heddiman, fireman of the engine. The two others are still under the debris and their names are unknown. Three of the injured, Engineers Gates and Goff and Fireman McGann, may die. The blame apparently rests with the train dispatcher.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

French Politics Still Badly Muddled.

Grevy in No Hurry to Resign—Candidates for His Office.

Balfour's Version of Editor O'Brien's Treatment in Jail.

Singular Verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the Scholten Case—Threatened Split Among the English Liberals—The Triple Alliance—Old World News.

By Telegraph to The Times.

PARIS, Nov. 25.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] President Grévy still stubbornly resists the demand for his immediate resignation. The press condemns the prolongation of the crisis. Lepaix says Grévy will not resign before he has placed the Republic in a safe position. It declares the Orleans princes very active, and warns the Republicans to reflect on the course they are taking.

It is stated that Gen. Saussier asked permission from the ministry to announce his refusal to contest the Presidency, which leaves three candidates; Floquet, Ferry and De Freycinet.

Le Paris says that Rouvier agreed to read President Grévy's message, only on condition that the latter withdraw his acceptance of the resignation of the ministry. Rouvier reproached the President for accepting the ministers' resignation.

It is reported that on Rouvier's advice, Wilson actually signed a letter of resignation to avoid endangering Grévy's positions, but later, seeing that it would amount to an admission of Wilson's guilt, the President and Wilson agreed to cancel the letter.

Marder de Montgou is actually canvassing in behalf of the proposed resolution, expressing confidence in Grévy. Although the feeling against Grévy is somewhat abated, it is thought unlikely that his friends' efforts will be successful.

BERLIN BUDGET.

Proposed Increase of Germany's Military Resources.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The North German Gazette, commenting on the speech from the throne, says that the object of the bill for the reorganization of the landwehr and landsturm is the bringing about of an essential increase in the defensive strength of the empire. That measure, taken in connection with the declaration of the speech in regard to Germany's foreign policy, will be received by the country and press with sympathy and satisfaction.

The Kreuz Zeituny says the bill entails a financial sacrifice of only half a million marks. The age of liability to service in the landsturm, it says, is extended a few years.

In the Reichstag today the president read a telegram from the Crown Prince, in response to a message of sympathy sent by that body yesterday, thanking them for their sympathy and expressing the hope that a favorable turn in his ailment, which has already resulted from his stay in the south, would permit him to resume, to a full extent, his duties to the fatherland.

THE JAILED EDITOR.

Balfour's Version of O'Brien's Treatment in Prison.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] A letter written by Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, is published, in which he refers to the grotesque episode of O'Brien's clothes. He says that O'Brien was not treated in Tullamore Prison either with leniency or severity. He had succeeded in sheltering himself under a medical opinion that his lungs are delicate and his heart's action is weak. Balfour says also that if O'Brien refuses to wear the prison dress force will not be applied to compel him. There is no reason why he should not fulfill his term in prison, but he cannot safely be subjected to the usual discipline.

MORE COERCION.

DUBLIN, Nov. 25.—Denis McNamara, a shopkeeper at Ennis, has been sentenced to a week's imprisonment for selling copies of United Ireland, William O'Brien's paper, the selling of which has been proclaimed. This is the first instance in which a person has been prosecuted for selling a paper.

OLD WORLD ECHOES.

Verdict of the Jury in the Scholten Disaster.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Coronor's jury at Dover rendered a verdict that the collision between the W. A. Scholten and the Rosa Mary was due to an error of judgment on the part of the Scholten's officers in trying to cross the bows of the Rosa Mary, which was anchored, without making allowance for the strong tide. The conduct of the officers of the Ebro in rescuing the victims is worthy of great praise. At the instance of the Coronor, however, the clause imputing error of judgment was eliminated from the verdict.

A SPLIT PROBABLE.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—It is probable that a split will shortly occur in the National Liberal Club. Eighty-eight members have made requisitions upon the committee to convene a meeting to debate a resolution that, in the interest of the party, members should actively engage in political work. Many Unionists and Gladstonian members oppose such action on the ground that the club comprises all sections of the Liberal party, and that it would be unwise to accentuate the divisions by a participation in active politics.

HIS GRACIOUS NIBS.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—A banquet was given this evening by the benchers of the Temple, the occasion being the formal termination of the Prince of Wales' year in office as treasurer. Phelps, American Minister, gracefully toasted the health of the Prince of Wales. The Prince returned the compliment. He said all would concur with him in the hope that the day was far distant when the good feeling existing between the two countries would be marred or interrupted.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

PESTH, Nov. 25.—Pesther Lloyd denies that each of the powers in the triple alliance is only bound to assist when two powers are attacked. It says an ally is bound under all circumstances to assist. The paper also says that Bismarck informed the Czar, at the interview at Berlin on Friday, that the triple alliance was the result of Russia's sullenness and ill will.

As we were enjoying our Thanksgiving drive through the charming city of Pasadena, we passed down Orange Grove avenue and noticed a beautiful tract bearing the name of "Carlisle Heights." This subdivision is on the ridge between Orange Grove and Pasadena avenues. The streets have been cut to an official grade, leaving the lots all high, from which you get a good view. Cement walks and concrete curbs are in front of all the lots. Also a grass-plot, in which are planted pepper trees and palms alternately. It is well located for homes, being near enough to the business center and convenient to the depots, opera house, school and church. We were told that this has been subdivided by G. W. Stimson, and that it is to be put on the market next Tuesday, November 29th. Any one wanting an investment of choice property should see this and be among the first to make a selection of a lot which is covered with a good variety of large fruit trees.

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M.D.,

No. 275 North Main Street.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by

DR. WILLIAMS,

With his new system of Medicated Inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address,

MINNEAPOLIS!

This New Townsite!

Beautifully located on line of Southern Pacific Railroad, four miles north of Los Angeles,

NOW ON THE MARKET!

The Prices of Lots Range from $350 to $450.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash, one-third in six months, one-third in one year.

This winter will be a repetition of last. Outside property will advance rapidly, and those who buy now at bedrock prices will not only reap the benefit of all improvements that go to enhance values, but will get full advantage of owners' advances which will occur from time to time during the winter.

We start this new town off with the following advantages:

☞It is only four miles from the city.

☞The Southern Pacific Railroad runs through the tract, and depot and side tracks will be built at once.

☞The Los Angeles and Glendale Motor Railroad, now about completed, runs within 600 feet of this townsite.

☞The Pasadena Boulevard, now an assured fact, is laid out immediately through the center of the tract.

☞The San Fernando County Road runs along the north line.

There is no finer valley in Southern California. Abundance of water, good mountain air. Parties desiring cheap suburban homes, with rapid and frequent communication with the city, cannot do better than to buy here. Thousands of people will be here this fall seeking homes, and will overflow to outside points for lack of accommodations. Remember how outside property advanced last winter and profit by the experience. Buy early.

FIELD DAY.

Outdoor Sports of the McPherron Academy.

The McPherron Academy students held their first annual field games yesterday morning at the Sixth-street base-ball grounds.

The attendance was not large, as many supposed that the games would be held in the afternoon.

The first contest was the 100-yard dash, which resulted as follows: C. B. Patrick first, E. R. Eshleman second, J. H. Pitblado third. Time, 11¼ seconds.

Patrick showed great speed, and many put the time at 11 seconds.

The second event was the long-distance race—H. Rice (finished) first, R. S. Lanterman second, A. Ashmead third. The time was 16 minutes, the distance 15 laps, which is equal to two and one-seventh miles.

The third contest was the running wide jump. C. B. Patrick again proved a winner, jumping 16 feet 6 inches, with J. H. Pitblado second, covering 16 feet.

In the standing high jump C. B. Patrick again showed his athletic prowess, jumping 3 feet 10 inches, with Ed Germain second with a record of 3 feet 8 inches.

In the class race, 100-yard dash, J. Pease came in first, C. W. Woodward second, R. E. Maynard third. Time, 12¼ seconds.

In the juniors' 75-yard dash, J. Chichester proved the winner in 11 seconds, closely followed by Bruce Pitblado, Charles Reise third.

In the standing high kick, C. Jones won in 6 feet 9 inches.

In the standing wide jump, J. Pitblado won first prize, covering 9 feet 1 inch. Ed Germain jumped into second place with 8 feet 8 inches.

The sack race, fifty yards, was very amusing. With much tumbling Fred Kramer crossed the line first, closely pressed by G. Chichester.

In the hitch-and-kick E. Germain reached 6 feet 8 inches, winning the only prize offered.

In the three standing jumps J. H. Pitblado won easily.

C. B. Patrick threw the base-ball ninety-four yards and won.

The wrestling match between H. Germain and E. Germain was cleverly contested, the former winning in three straight falls.

Billy Manning filled the position of referee, R. F. Russell starter, Prof. F. P. Brackett acted as judge. The distribution of the medals will take place next Monday morning at the opening of the academy.

Y.M.C.A.

The meeting held last evening closed the services for this week. A large number were present and the usual interest was shown. The following resolutions, found under the pillow of a young man after his death, were the subjects of discourse: "I take God the Father to be my God, God the Son to be my Savior, God the Holy Ghost to be my Sanctifier, the Word of God to be my rule, the people of God to be my people, which I do deliberately, sincerely and forever." There will be a meeting tomorrow at 3:30 p.m., in the First Congregational Church, corner Third and Hill streets, for men and women, when it will be decided whether or not to continue these meetings.

Callahan Caged.

Yesterday morning at 3 o'clock several persons were attracted to the District Telegraph office, on Main street. When Officer Spencer reached the office he found that Harry Callahan, a young man who had charge of the office for the night, had just been amusing himself by thumping a little boy. He had knocked the poor little fellow down, so the bystanders said, and kicked him several times. Callahan was taken to the police station and locked up on a charge of battery.

The Terror of the Types.

A vexing typographical error crept into the report yesterday of Rev. Dr. Fay's Thanksgiving sermon. The closing quotation should read, "to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God"; not as the types made it, "to live merry," etc.

Marriage License.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Kaspar Egloff and Louise Witmer.

Curley Cooked.

Henry Walton, alias "Curley," accused of grand larceny, pleaded guilty in Judge Smith's court yesterday morning, and entered a plea of guilty. He will be sentenced on Monday, November 28th, at 10 a.m.

The person or persons to whom the contract shall be awarded shall execute the contract and file the necessary bonds within fifteen days from the date of the award, and in case of failure or neglect so to do he or they will be considered as having abandoned it and as in default to the city of Santa Barbara, and said certified check shall be forfeited and paid over to the Treasurer of said city, to be credited to the street fund.

All of the above work is to be bid for under their heads as above described.

These quantities are considered approximate only, and the right of increasing and diminishing the said quantities, as in his opinion may be necessary, is hereby reserved to the City Surveyor.

Blanks will be furnished on application to the City Clerk or City Surveyor for proposals.

LA PRESA!

The Beautiful Swiss Village on Lake Como
BEING REPRODUCED IN SAN DIEGO.

The most novel thing yet undertaken in the development of this southern country is now being done at LA PRESA, nine miles from San Diego. The plan is to reproduce in that delightful spot the counterpart of the celebrated Swiss village on Lake Como, in Northern Italy. To this end a railroad is being built to the place, and a fine modern hotel is to be erected at once. The situation is most delightful; far enough removed from the sea to escape rough winds, yet near enough to be always cool. With pure water, fine scenery, and the best of soil, LA PRESA is just the place to invest for a quick turn with big profits. LA PRESA is sure to grow rapidly, as it has all the elements to attract a select class of settlers.

Lots are Sold for the Low Price of $100 to $125 Each.

High-Arm Sewing-Machine!

—AND THE—

WEEKLY MIRROR.

[The machines described below are now kept on hand at the Times-Mirror office, and persons can be supplied on short notice, without having to wait until they are shipped from Chicago. The freight is included in the charge below named, from Chicago to Los Angeles. Persons ordering machines from this office will pay the extra freight to their destination.]

For $25.50 this machine and WEEKLY MIRROR, postage paid, for one year.

This machine is the first of its kind ever offered the public at factory prices, and cannot be bought from agents for less than the regular selling price, $75. It is the high-arm pattern, has self-setting needle; cannot be run backward; has automatic cut-off for driving belt, which prevents it from being run backward, thus avoiding all dangers of breaking thread or needles. It is a noiseless, light-running machine, accompanied by an illustrated book of instructions that makes everything so plain and simple that any lady or child can master it. We call it the MIRROR HIGH-ARM SEWING MACHINE, and we warrant it to give full and entire satisfaction in every case, or it may be returned to us within ten days after the subscriber has received the same, if it fails to be as represented, at our expense, and the money will be refunded.

Knowing the character of the machine and the high grade of material and workmanship entering into its construction, we have no hesitation in agreeing to return the money at once to any subscriber who is not fully satisfied on examination that our high-arm machine is fully equal to our representations, we paying freight on return of the machine.

CAUTION—Sewing machine agents will tell you, "Beware of Cheap machines." We tell you buy the high-arm machine on trial, and if not satisfactory return it. No agent can sell you its equal for less than $75. Each part of the machine is fitted with such exactness that no trouble can arise if any part is broken, for a new piece can be supplied with an assurance of a perfect fit.

OUTFIT—Each machine is supplied with the following outfit: One Hemmer and Feller (one piece), Twelve Needles, Six Bobbins, One Wrench, One Quilting Gauge, One Screw Driver, Oil Can filled with Oil, Cloth Gauge and Thumb-screw and a Book of Directions. The following extra attachments are also furnished free: Ruffler, Tucker, Binder, Set of Wide Hemmers and Shirring Plate.

Give shipping directions plainly, as well as the postoffice address the paper is to be sent to.

Having arranged with the manufacturers to supply us with these machines in large quantities for spot cash at or very near first cost, we can save our subscribers at least $35 on the price of each machine. As this is the first time a sewing machine of this character has been offered the public at about manufacturer's cost, we feel confident our readers will promptly take vantage of this opportunity to provide themselves with first-class high-arm machines, which obtained in any other way would cost them almost three times the amount.

We could fill several columns expatiating on the merits of this high-arm machine, but to save the reader's patience we will simply say that it contains all the modern improvements, is strong, simple, durable, light-running and noiseless.

☞ The LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES—Any person desiring the Daily and this Sewing Machine can have the same by mail for $32.50, they paying the freight from this office to their destination.

HOW TO ORDER.

When you remit at the $25.50 for the Machine and WEEKLY MIRROR one year, write plainly the point the machine is to be shipped to, as well as the postoffice the paper is to be sent to. The machine should be ordered to the nearest railroad point where the railroad company has an agent stationed, and the name of railroad station, the county and State should be stated. A VILE AFFAIR.

San Francisco. I am now living with a woman on Alameda street.

Question by Mr. Stephens: Have you any money other than you get from the woman with whom you are living?

Objected to by the prosecution, and, after a long argument, objection sustained. In the course of the argument the Mayor stated that they wanted to get the bottom facts, and would allow the greatest possible latitude.

The witness then continued, the remainder of the evidence not differing materially from what he said on his direct examination. He said that he did not know the Chief of Police, but recognized him now from a picture he had seen of him in a paper; he had never seen him before.

James A. Boyd was the next witness called. He testified as follows: I have been in Los Angeles about three months, coming here from San Francisco. I saw Moore in San Francisco, but never spoke to him. My accusations are against Alford. Andrews and myself were going down Aliso street, stopped in a saloon to get a drink of soda. Moore said to us: "What are you doing?" He then asked me what I was doing. I replied that I was working in the Saratoga restaurant. We all went up to the restaurant. Moore asked the proprietor if I was working there. The proprietor told him I was, and he said all right. Alford and I sat down at a table, and I asked him if he would have something to eat. He said no, and then I asked him to drink, which he accepted. I showed him around the restaurant. We had a cigar together. When we reached one of the private boxes at the farthest end of the restaurant, we went in and sat down. We had more drinks and cigars. Then he said: "Say, Petie, what do you mean by telling people that we can't 'pull' you?" I told him I never said anything of the kind. He further said: "What's that woman of your's doing down there?" He asked to put her on the streets and let her steal. He said, "We are not down here for our health," and he would protect us as long as we were here. I told him that she was too young, and did not know enough for the business, as she has only been on the town three months. He said it was an easy matter for her to learn. He wanted to know why she could not steal where she is. I told him I would not allow it, and neither would the lady who runs the house. I told him that it was impossible. We had some more drinks, and then he said we will divide the profits, and I told him I would think the matter over. Alford came to my room and said he'd been looking for me. He said that the night before the Opera-house and a dentist office had been robbed, also the Santa Fé depot. He said he wanted me to go out and dig up the stuff. He said for me to let him know when I found the stuff and he would give me two twenties. I could not go. He met my wife and asked her: "Well, how's his nibs?" My wife said I couldn't go out. That was the last time I saw Mr. Alford.

Cross-examined: The conversation about putting my girl on the street to steal took place in the Saratoga restaurant. We had several drinks and smoked cigars. Witness then repeated the conversation in the restaurant, and concluded his testimony as follows: Alford said he wasn't down here for his health. He wanted me to put my woman on the street to steal. I said she hadn't been on the town long enough. I told him Abbott would not have it. Alford told me how he and Moore had a woman on Taylor street. I did not get angry at Alford when he made the proposition as to the woman to me. I just told him she was too young and didn't know enough for that sort of business.

H. L. WITZKY

next took the stand. He said: I have been in Los Angeles about four months, and came here from San Francisco. I have known John Moore three years. I did not know Alford until I came here. I have met both men often here. Have met Moore very frequently. I am a butcher by trade. Had several conversations with Moore. On the 25th of October I had a talk with Moore. Alford was there then. This talk was held back of the postoffice, in a hallway. Moore then asked me if I didn't want to make some money. He wanted me to start a pawnshop, and receive stolen goods, and receive the rewards, if any were offered, and divide them. I told him I had no money to start with. I wanted him to wait until Johnny Abbott got back. He said he didn't want Abbott at all; that Abbott was no good. Alford said I could make money on stolen goods. He said, "Take all that comes along. We will make it all right." They said I could "point" stuff for them and we would divide the reward. Alford asked if my wife could not make some money. I invited him to my room. Both came up at about 11 o'clock the next night. Alford asked my wife: "Why don't you make some money for yourself?" My wife said she was afraid. Alford said he would protect her. This was in room No. 12, of the Baliade block, on Aliso and Commercial streets.

Cross-examined: My wife is what you would call a prostitute or strumpet. I am a gambler, and make money as best I can. Have not worked at my trade for four years because of sickness. Yes; I have served a term in San Quentin for robbery, but I was pardoned out by Gov. Perkins when he found out that I was innocent.

Question: Did you ever hit an opium pipe?

"Yes, I do hit it," replied Witzky, whereupon Prosecutor Dunn told him he need not answer such questions unless he wanted to. "I don't care," replied Witzky, "Moore and Alford, my wife and myself have hit it on the same bed." This remark caused a great sensation in the room and when the laughter had subsided, the witness continued: "I have had an opium lay-out for over a year and a half. Alford wanted my wife to be a thief. He made the remark that we had ought to make $5000 this winter. She was wanted to prostitute herself and rob customers. Dan Day of San Francisco told me to have nothing to do with Moore and Alford. I refused to have anything to do with them. They smoked opium at my room. Alford took one draw and Moore two. Witness confessed that he would have gone into the business of receiving stolen goods had he the necessary money to do so. He had hoped Abbott would lend him the money.

MRS. WITZKY,

wife of the former witness, was next called. She said: My name is Lutie Witzky. I came here on the 14th of July, from San Francisco. Have met Moore and Alford. I met Moore on the street when walking with my husband. I met Alford in my room with Moore at 11:15 at night. They came up together, and after sitting for a while, Alford said: "Let't come to business; I haven't much time." He asked me if I could get money—that is, steal it. He said that any small money I might keep for myself—and all over $100 we would divide—I told him I had a mother to support, and was afraid to do it, but would study over it. We smoked a few pills of opium, two apice. Moore said he would give me protection, and said he had the Chief dead to rights.

Cross-examined: Yes, I smoked opium with Moore and Alford and got my share. It was October 26th. The officers came by themselves. My husband was at home when they came. It was where I reside. I came home that evening about 9 o'clock. They said "Good evening." I asked them to take a seat. Moore laid down next me on the bed. I had a wrapper on. We had been smoking the pipe. They staid until about midnight. My husband told me they would come to see me that night. It wasn't a panel game that they proposed. It takes two to run a panel game, you know. They wanted me to work single-handed. Alford said he and Moore would give me their protection. I told them I was afraid I would get caught. Alford did the talking. He said I could have everything up to $100 Over that I would have to give him half. Moore made a vulgar remark to me. Moore said he had Darcy solid, and either himself or Alford were in the office all of the time. When they told me this, I said I'd study about it. I really meant to think it over. I might have undertaken to do it if I thought it was safe. I am like other women of my class—

Mr. Stephens, interrupting: That is, you will all steal at a favorable opportunity?

Witness: Yes, I guess so. I have never stolen anything yet. I have always been straight. Moore and Alford made an appointment with my husband when they went away that night. I just told Alford I would consider it. I did not at the time say that I would do it. I have told you all I can remember about that conversation, except that Alford and Moore said we ought to make more at pipes during the winter. There was something said about making the money in the pawnbrokers' business, but nothing was said about my part of the business.

JOHN ABBOTT,

the next witness, was then sworn and said: I know Mr. and Mrs. Witzky. I know Boyd and I know Moore and Alford. I heard about the robbery affair. Had seen Moore and Alford with a man and woman under arrest. Thought nothing wrong about it. Afterward was told about the Witzky matter. Talked with the Chief, and told him there was something rotten. He told me to break it up. I have seen Moore and Alford drinking beer, guzzling whisky, etc. I saw Alford drunk with a woman on Alameda street the day after the charges were preferred. Have no feeling in the matter, but at one time had enmity against Alford, and would have beat his head off, but he was too big for me.

This concluded Abbott's testimony, and adjournment was had until 2 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

The board met at 2 o'clock, when Mr. Stephens stated, that as the defendants had for the first time heard all the charges against them, they desired a further continuance. Attorney Dunn then read the additional charges against Moore and Alford, to the effect that said officers have been drunk, and Alford has demanded money from a man known to him as Hoyt in an illegal manner, and contrary to police regulations, after which was sworn, and said: I have lived in Los Angeles since July or August. I know Alford and Moore. I have never seen them intoxicated. We have drank together. We have been a little off. Don't know whether they were on duty or not. Never saw Alford full. Have seen Moore a little off.

Cross-examined by Mr. Stephens: Saw Moore take a few glasses of beer. Could not say that he was drunk. Just a little off.

BILLY ABBOTT,

sworn: I know Alford and Moore. Have known them to be full while on the force. Is was at the Anheuser. Saw Moore in liquor three or four times. Alford same number of times. May have been on duty.

Cross-examined: I saw them at the Anheuser. In front of Club Theater. Seen them full numerous times. Took no tally. Saw them drunk. Had Moore drink with me several times. My business is anything I can make money at. Have been dealing in real estate. Never made my living by selling real estate. Have received money from my mother. Don't live at home with my mother. Have separate room on New High street. Live alone. Have no business during day. Go to Anheuser and Club Theater occasiodally. Took no dates of when I saw them drunk, but saw them several times. Drunk most any time during the last five or six weeks. Not noisy, but in good humor. I was introduced to Moore by Burke. I couldn't put the date, but know they were drunk. Can fix no time. Will not swear that I have seen them drunk within the last four weeks or a month ago, but have seen them drunk.

OFFICER BOSQUI,

sworn: My testimony is in regard to Moore. I have seen Moore drunk on Main street, so that it could be noticed. He was with Walter S. Moore about three weeks before Moore resigned as chief of the Fire Department.

Cross-examined: I saw a party of six come out of the Anheuser. They spoke to me. They went down to Sam Shaw's place. About 3 o'clock both Moores came up. I had some words with Walter S. Moore. Officer Moore was in the Nadeau at 4:20. I did not report him to the Chief. Am an old police officer. Have been on the force thirty-three or thirty-four months. This occurred under Skinner's administration, some three months ago. I have been working up this case. I was detailed to work up the case. I am on the regular force. I have no feeling in the matter. I wouldn't have reported the matter if this had not come up.

was recalled, but nothing of importance was developed, and Officer Bosqui was put on the stand. Alford's note for $10 borrowed from Mother Brown was read, heretofore published in THE TIMES, and placed in evidence.

MRS. BROWN

sworn: I recognize the note. Loaned Alford money, but didn't want to take note. Alford visited my house numerous times as a detective. I couldn't swear that he was drunk. I know a man named George Hoyt. He lost a watch at my place. He borrowed money from me, which he said was to pay Alford. Did not see him pay the money. No, Alford has not paid me the $10; the time is not up.

NELLIE THORNE,

sworn: Have known Moore and Alford two months. Never saw them intoxicated. Hoyt lost a watch. I knew nothing about it that night. We had several drinks. I know nothing about Hoyt paying.

The affidavit heretofore published in THE TIMES in reference to the watch incident at Mother Brown's was then read, and the prosecution rested.

Mr. Stephens again asked for a continuance, and after a lengthy argument, participated in by all parties, it was decided to hear all the witnesses which the defense had on hand, when the question of giving further time would be considered.

WALTER S. MOORE

was the first witness called for the defense. He said: Yes, I remember the incident testified to by Officer Bosqui. I didn't think Moore was intoxicated. Yes, Moore had been drinking; he had been drinking all during the night. We had been together.

JOHN ABBOTT

here made a statement to the effect that he soon expected to leave town, and hence could not be present if the case was continued. Another long argument ensued, after which Attorney Dunn was put on the stand and testified at some length, but his evidence was of a technical nature, generally, and had no particular bearing on the case. He said he had never seen either Moore or Alford drunk, but that they had drank with him at the Nadeau.

FRED ANDREWS

was recalled, but his testimony was unimportant, as was also Attorney Dunn's, both testifying as to the bail money now on deposit with Justice Austin.

EX-OFFICER F. H. LEMON

then took the stand, and testified as follows: Yes, he recollected the Bosqui matter. Moore was on duty doing detective work. They drank three or four glasses of beer. They were together an hour or an hour and a half. Visited two saloons, and had five drinks. Met Walter S. Moore at Nadeau House. Saw Moore intoxicated. Never saw Alford drunk. Moore and myself have got drunk together. One time he took me home in a hack. Both of us got drunk another time. We were full many times, I don't know how often.

James Hayden was sworn, but his evidence did not amount to anything.

Another effort was made to get a continuance, but on the board insisting on examining all the witnesses summoned by the defense, Mr. Stephens said they did not want them. Carlton Kemp, Hugh H. Higgins and Police Officer Donahue were then sworn, but dismissed at once by the defense, and after another long argument the hearing was continued to Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
